Affordable Remote Jobs No Experience For Dads:

Getting Me Cheap Amanda Freeman, Lisa Dodson, 2022-11-29 Two groundbreaking sociologists explore the way the American dream is built on the backs of working poor women. Many Americans take comfort and convenience for granted. We eat at nice restaurants, order groceries online, and hire nannies to care for kids. Getting Me Cheap is a riveting portrait of the lives of the low wage workers, primarily women, who make this lifestyle possible. Sociologists Lisa Dodson and Amanda Freeman follow women in the food, health care, home care, and other low wage industries as they struggle to balance mothering with bad jobs and without public aid. While these women tend to the needs of well off families, their own children frequently step into premature adult roles providing care for siblings and aging family members. Based on years of in depth field work and hundreds of eye opening interviews, Getting Me Cheap explores how America traps millions of women and their children into lives of stunted opportunity and poverty in service of giving others of us the lives we seek. Destined to rank with works like Evicted and Nickel and Dimed for its revelatory glimpse into how our society functions behind the scenes, Getting Me Cheap also offers a way forward with both policy solutions and a keen moral vision for organizing women across class lines.

Women Chefs of New York Nadia Arumugam, 2015-10-27 Women Chefs of New York is a colorful showcase of twenty five leading female culinary talents in the restaurant capital of the world. In a fiercely competitive male dominated field, these women have risen to the top, and their stories and their recipes make it abundantly clear why. Food writer Nadia Arumugam braves the sharp knives and the sputtering pans of oil for intimate interviews revealing the chefs' habits, quirks, food likes and dislikes, their proudest achievements, and their aspirations. Each chef contributes four signature recipes: appetizers, entrees, and desserts, to recreate the experience of a meal from their celebrated kitchens. This gorgeous full color cookbook includes portraits of these inspiring women, inviting interior shots of their restaurants, and mouthwatering pictures of the featured dishes, styled by the chefs themselves, all captured by celebrated food photographer Alice Gao. Women Chefs of New York features all stars such as Amanda Freitag, Jody Williams, April Bloomfield, The Spotted Pig, The Breslin, Gabrielle Hamilton, Prune, Christina Tosi, Momofuku Milk Bar, and Alex Raij, La Vara, Txikito, El Quinto, as well as up and coming players like Zahra Tangorra, Brucie Ann Redding, Uncle Boons, and Sawako Ockochi. Shalom, Japan! It's the ultimate gift for any cook or foodie, man or woman, interested in the food that's dazzling discerning palates in NYC now.

Tribe Wanted Ben Keene, 2008-09-04 Paradise or Bust is the fascinating adventure story of Tribewanted, a revolutionary eco tourism project founded by twentysomething Ben Keene. As featured in the BBC documentary series, Keene's story follows the ups and downs of a global online network of like minded travellers and an indigenous Fijian community as they attempt to build a new life on a 200 acre island in the South Pacific. All major decisions on the island are voted on by an online tribe that anyone around the world can join. There are many challenges to overcome: A fire sweeps the island, a military coup delayed until the end of a rugby match brews on the mainland, and a tropical cyclone threatens to wipe out the emerging village. Online, there are other storms to fight as accusations of scam artistry tribal politics and the regular grind of debates and decision making among Tribewanted s 1000 members push the adventure and the business to the very edge But in the end with a little luck and a lot of hard work they might just build their paradise Now a major 5 part series for transmission on BBC2 in winter 2008
