Balkan Identities Nation And Memory Maria Todorova:

Balkan Identities Mariia Nikolaeva Todorova, 2004 Four main themes are concentrated on in this text the construction of historical memories the sites of national memory the transmission of national memory and the mobilisation of national identities

The Balkans Beyond Nationalism and Identity Pavlos Hatzopoulos, 2007-12-19 For decades we have come to accept that nationalism formed the basis of the modern history of the Balkans In this bold and controversial study Pavlos Hatzopoulos turns this assumption on its head Through a ground breaking examination of the non nationalist ideologies in the Balkans during the interwar period Hatzopoulos calls into question the supposedly inherent connection between the Balkans and nationalism and argues that nationalism does not form the sole ordering principle of the modern history of the Balkan region Focusing on the ideologies of communism liberal internationalism and agrarianism Hatzopoulos examines how these interact with nationalist ideology He demonstrates how non nationalist theories challenge the nationalist view of the Balkans as the sum of several national spaces He even questions the nationalist understanding of the very term the Balkans The Balkans Beyond Nationalism and Identity revisits contemporary debates on a region that is still a European crisis point and challenges the nation centric understanding that permeates it In proposing a description of the Balkans as a contested political concept the book argues for a completely fresh interpretation of the region s composition

Identity, Nationalism, and Cultural Heritage under Siege Fatme Myuhtar-May, 2014-04-17 In Identity Nationalism and Cultural Heritage under Siege Fatme Myuhtar May makes a case for the recognition of Pomak heritage by presenting five stories from the past and present of the Rhodope Muslims in Bulgaria as examples of a distinct Pomak culture The stories range from the Christianisation during the Balkan Wars of 1912 1913 and the forced communist renaming of the Pomaks in the 1970s to their fascinating wedding rituals and historic figures Each of the five narratives contains its own storyline and serves as a prominent example of Pomak heritage from the author s perspective The stories take place in the context of fervent nationalism and the ongoing censorship of Pomakness based on the claim that it is an ethnic Bulgarian not Pomak heritage

Patriotic History and the (Re)Nationalization of Memory Kornelia Kończal, A. Dirk Moses, 2023-06-27 This book charts and traces state mandated or state encouraged patriotic histories that have recently emerged in many places around the globe Such patriotic histories can revolve around both affirmative interpretations of the past and celebration of national achievements They can also entail explicitly denialist stances against acknowledging responsibility for past atrocities even to the extent of celebrating perpetrators Whereas in some cases patriotic history takes the shape of a coherent doctrine in others they remain limited to loosely connected narratives By combining nationalist and narcissist narratives and by disregarding or distorting historical evidence patriotic history promotes mythified monumental and moralistic interpretations of the past that posit partisan and authoritarian essentialisms and exceptionalisms Whereas the global debates in interdisciplinary memory studies revolve around concepts like cosmopolitan global multidirectional relational transcultural and transnational memory to mention but a few the actual socio political uses of history remain strikingly nation centred and one dimensional This volume collects fifteen case studies of such nationalizations of history ranging from China to the Baltic states They highlight three features of this phenomenon the ruthlessness of methods applied by many state authorities to impose certain interpretations of the past the increasing discrepancy between professional and political approaches to collective memory and the new post truth context This book will be of interest to students and researchers of international politics the radical right and global history It was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Genocide Research

Imagining Macedonia in the Age of Empire Denis Š. Ljuljanović, 2023 During the tumultuous age of empire Ottoman Macedonia became a blank canvas onto which Great Powers and neighboring states projected their aspirations grievances ambitions and state building endeavors This manuscript aims to elucidate these constructs and imaginaries employing a theoretical framework encompassing entangled history post colonial theory and subaltern studies It will examine both inter state and local examples to shed light on the multifaceted nature of this complex issue

Memory and Nation Building Michael L. Galaty, 2018-08-16 Memory and Nation Building addresses the complex topic of collective memory first described by sociologist Maurice Halbwachs in the first half of the 20th century Author Michael Galaty argues that the first states appropriated traditional collective memory systems in order to form With this in mind he compares three Mediterranean societies Egypt Greece and Albania each of which experienced very different trajectories of state formation Galaty attributes these differences to varying responses to collective memory in all three places through time with climaxes in the Ottoman period during which all three were under Ottoman control Egypt was characterized by deeply meaningful memory tropes concerning national unity which spanned all of Egyptian history while Greece experienced memory fragmentation a condition exacerbated by periods of imperial conquest Albania adapted and assimilated when faced with foreign domination such that an indigenous Albanian state did not form until 1912 Galaty builds a diachronic model of state formation and its relationship to memory and political control Memory and Nation Building culminates in an analysis of modern collective memory systems and resistance to those systems which are often framed as conflicts over heritage The formation and eventual fall of the short lived Islamic State serves as an example of extreme memory work with lessons for other modern nations

Southeast European Studies in a Globalizing World Christian Promitzer, Siegfried Gruber, Harald Heppner, 2014 Since the early 1990s Southeast European studies have undergone profound changes being shaped by the wars of Yugoslav succession and the ramifications of post socialism coupled with democratic deficiencies which characterize most of Southeast Europe The countries which it encompasses rest uneasily on the periphery of the developed variant of Western capitalism but they have nonetheless to contend with the challenges of adjusting to a market economy The imprint of these contexts on academic research has led to a discussion of the role of Southeast European studies It is the task of this volume to summarize and raise awareness of this discussion Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 16 Subject European Studies Sociology Politics

Speaking for the Nation Federico Giulio Sicurella, 2020-06-08 The book explores the nexus of intellectual activity and nation building from a critical discourse analytical perspective By examining how public intellectuals from Serbia Croatia and Bosnia and Herzegovina commented on key national events in editorials and opinion pieces it offers unique insights into contemporary nation building discourses in an enlarging Europe Through a detailed reconstruction of the debates concerning the selected events the book also provides fresh empirical evidence of the implications and challenges of post socialist transition post conflict reconciliation democratisation and European integration in the post Yugoslav region Its versatile framework which innovatively combines sociological and linguistic approaches to the discursive positioning of intellectuals may be readily applied to the analysis of intellectual engagement with current affairs and public life in general

Developing Cultural Identity in the Balkans Raymond Detrez, Pieter Plas, 2005 The fundamental contrast between convergent and divergent tendencies in the development of Balkan cultural identity can be seen as an important determinative both in the contradictory self images of people in the Balkans and in the often biased perceptions of Balkan societies held by external observers past and present In bringing together case studies from such heterogeneous lines of research as linguistics anthropology political literary and cultural history each presenting insightful analyses of micro as well as macro level aspects of identity construction in the Balkans this collection of essays provides a forum for the elucidation and critical evaluation of an intriguing paradox which continues to characterize the cultural situation in the Balkans and which moreover is of undeniable relevance for our understanding of recent political developments As such it also provides a window into the actual state of scholarly interest in the rich interdisciplinary field of Balkan studies This book contains a selection of papers presented at the international conference Developing Cultural Identity in the Balkans Convergence vs Divergence organized by the Center for Southeast European Studies at Ghent University on 12 and 13 December 2003 in Ghent

The Baltic as a Multicultural World Marko Lehti, 2005 The end of the Cold War brought the Baltic Sea area into the limelight of political and cultural cooperation Since then the Baltic Sea area has gained a powerful position as a dynamic European sub region Still like other similar kinds of areas defined by a sea or a river the Mediterranean world the Black Sea or the Danube the Baltic Sea area is hard to define and it has as many definitions as there are map makers The sea itself plays a central role but its influence is vague and always contingent This book has sought to introduce multiple insights for focusing on the Baltic All the contributions examine the question of the essence of the Baltic and the source of its unity and in particular concentrate on multi culturality and multi nationality in the Baltic context Some of the contributions survey the whole Baltic Sea area while others concentrate on the Baltic countries and some of them have found the Baltic in the limited environment of parish and town The Baltic is comprehended as a label that opens stimulating possibilities for replacing nation centrism with narratives of another kind extending beyond the current nation states This understanding provides opportunities for defining a multi ethnic multi lingual and multi cultural region and the diversity of identities that has existed

Bulletin of the Royal Institute for Inter-Faith Studies, 2003      Conflict and memory Franz-Lothar Altmann, 2010 Conflict and Memory presents a collection of essays focusing reconstructed past in Europe The book approaches the Balkans as integral part of the common European history In fact many countries that are already European Union members also have conflicting memories and are to this very day involved in a complex process of first coming to terms with their own past second acknowledging each others conflicting memories and third trying to re construct a common European memory as part of transnational memory spaces The essays highlight the different memory discourses Against the background of country specific and comparative studies they offer convincing analyses and arguments as to why the process of dealing with the past has to be seen both against the background of European history and in the context of the European Union integration process      The Avant-garde and the Margin Sanja Bahun-Radunović, Marinos Pourgouris, 2006 The collection of essays The Avant garde and the Margin New Territories of the Modernist Avant garde refigures the critical and historical picture of the modernist avant garde by introducing a variety of less commonly discussed geo artistic sites and dynamics The contributors explore the multifaceted relations established between the avant garde ocenters France Germany England and others and their counterparts in the cultural oeperiphery Greece India Japan Poland Quebec Romania and the former Yugoslavia as well as the unique artistic and literary dialogues which these encounters engendered The primary concern of the anthology is the set of relations established between the center and the margin the redefinition of which was pivotal for the formulation of the modernist avant garde aesthetic project itself While enriching the kaleidoscopic picture of modernism the essays in this collection also offer new methodological approaches to this polychrome cultural image In this way the collection avoids the pitfalls of both the traditional diffusionist Eurocentric model of the world and the more recent over relativization of the positions of the margin and the center In their stead the anthology proposes a hermeneutics of encounter that is simultaneously oespatial and oehistorical aware of its limits but convinced of its own necessity      The Bibliography of Romanian Nationalism & Ethnicity in Western Languages Sorin Mitu, 2008      Hitotsubashi Journal of Arts & Sciences, 2009      Dve domovini, 2008      Forced Ethnic Migrations on the Balkans Katerina Popova, Marko Hajdinjak, International Centre for Minority Studies and Intercultural Relations, 2006      Honored by the Glory of Islam Marc David Baer, 2008-01-10 Introduction conversion of self others and sacred space Inauspicious enthronement A decade of crisis Enjoying good and forbidding wrong Islamizing Istanbul Conversion to piety Mehmed iv and preacher Vani Mehmed Efendi Converting the Jewish prophet and Jewish physicians Conversion and conquest Ghazi Mehmed iv and Candia Conversion and conquest ghaza in Central and Eastern Europe Hunting for converts The failed final jihad Mehmed s life and legacy from ghazi to hunter Conclusion Islamic rulers and the process of conversion Postscript silences and traces of the past      The to Z of Bulgaria Raymond Detrez, 2010-05-10 Few states have fought as hard or as long to be established as that of the Republic of Bulgaria The Bulgarians have over the centuries created their own principalities kingdoms and republics only to have them crushed by stronger entities including the Byzantine and Ottoman Empires While recently the communist regime was largely dominated by and overly submissive to the Soviet Union Fortunately about 15 years ago a new republic arose which began revamping the economy reviving the political life and forging a new place in Europe The A to Z of Bulgaria contains more than 600 cross referenced entries on Bulgarian historical periods places terms organizations events and personalities The number of entries dealing with historical figures and events has been considerably enlarged and all of the entries of the first edition that have remained were carefully updated The newest insights of Bulgarian historiography as practiced in Bulgaria and abroad are also reflected In addition the book includes a brief introduction into Bulgarian history from the earliest times until mid 2005 including the formation of the current cabinet an easy reference chronology of Bulgarian history several maps and lists of Bulgarian political parties administrations and leaders A comprehensive bibliography is included to facilitate further reading on Bulgaria and Bulgarian history      National Stereotypes Bianca Valota,2007
