Sound in Indian Film and Audiovisual Media Budhaditya Chattopadhyay, 2025-10-01 This book is the first ever systematic attempt to study film sound in the Indian subcontinent by artistic research The book aims to fill the scholarly void on the issues of sound and listening in the Global Souths cultures It develops a comprehensive understanding of the unique sound world of Indian film and audiovisual media through the examination of historical developments of sound from early optical recordings to contemporary digital audio technologies The book is enriched with a practice based methodology informed by the author s own practice and based on extensive conversations with leading sound practitioners in the Indian subcontinent The book locates an emerging social and spatial awareness in Indian film and media production aided by a creative practice of sound occurring alongside the traditionally transcendental oral and pluriversal approach to listening By tracing this confluence of tradition and modernity the book makes valuable contributions to the fields of film history sound and media studies
