Best Practices For Social Work With Refugees And Immigrants:

Best Practices for Social Work with Refugees and Immigrants Miriam Potocky-Tripodi, 2002 Rather than focusing on specific groups this book takes a pan cultural perspective that focuses on the common experiences of refugees and immigrants It presents a best practice for each problem area defined Best Practices for Social Work with Refugees and Immigrants Miriam Potocky, Mitra Naseh, 2019-10-29 Social work practice with refugees and immigrants requires specialized knowledge of these populations and specialized adaptations and applications of mainstream services and interventions Because they are often confronted with cultural linguistic political and socioeconomic barriers these groups are especially vulnerable to psychological problems such as anxiety depression alienation grief and post traumatic stress disorder as well as concerns arising from inadequate health care Institutionalized discrimination and anti immigrant policies and attitudes only exacerbate these challenges The second edition of Best Practices for Social Work with Refugees and Immigrants offers an update to this comprehensive guide to social work with foreign born clients and an evaluation of various helping strategies and their methodological strengths and weaknesses Part 1 sets forth the context for evidence based service approaches for such clients by describing the nature of these populations relevant policies designed to assist them service delivery systems and culturally competent practice Part 2 addresses specific problem areas common to refugees and immigrants and evaluates a variety of assessment and intervention techniques in each area Using a rigorous evidence based and pancultural approach Miriam Potocky and Mitra Naseh identify best practices at the macro meso and micro levels to meet the pressing needs of uprooted peoples The new edition incorporates the latest research on contemporary social work practice with refugees and immigrants to provide a practical up to date resource for the multitude of issues and interventions for these populations Best Practices for Social Work with Refugees and Immigrants Miriam Potocky, Mitra Naseh, 2019-10-15 The second edition of Best Practices for Social Work with Refugees and Immigrants offers an update to this comprehensive guide to social work with foreign born clients and an evaluation of various helping strategies and their methodological strengths and weaknesses It incorporates the latest research to provide a practical up to date resource Models for Practice With Immigrants and Refugees Aimee Hilado, Marta Lundy, 2017-04-06 Designed to establish a foundational framework for working with trauma exposed immigrants and refugees Models for Practice With Immigrants and Refugees Collaboration Cultural Awareness and Integrative Theory by Aimee Hilado and Marta Lundy introduces innovative approaches to address client mental health problems while supporting adjustment to life in a new country This practice oriented book emphasizes the relevance of Western approaches while reorienting Western concepts to be more culturally sensitive from a domestic and international perspective Grounded in critical thinking and strengthened by an ecological systems perspective the book presents six different models for applying and integrating Western theory and related practice strategies for working with individuals families groups communities organizations volunteers and local workforces International Social Work

Research Tony Tripodi, Miriam Potocky-Tripodi, 2007 1 Introduction What is International Social Work Research 2 Supra National Research3 Issues and Examples of Supra National Research4 Intra National Research5 Issues and Examples of Intra National Research Trans National Research Issues and Examples of Trans National Research Summary Practice and People of Color Doman Lum, 2004 This text offers a practical and well defined five stage model of social work practice with culturally diverse communities While the book specifically looks at practice with persons of color African American Asian American Latino and First Nations people it is intended to be relevant for culturally and ethnically sensitive practice with any individual or population The Indian Journal of Social Work ,2007 Refugee Survey Quarterly Journal of Education for Social Work ,2009 Essential Law for Social Work Practice in Canada Cheryl .2003 Regehr, Karima Kanani, 2006 Essential Law for Social Work Practice in Canada addresses the need for an up to date hands on legal information guide that social workers can use as they interact with the Canadian federal and provincial legal system It includes a helpful overview of Canadian law and the implications for social workers and a description of the structure of the court system It addresses topics of current and growing importance such as citizenship and refugees human rights family laws child protection health care issues including mental illness and youth criminal justice Other important topics covered include ethics federal and provincial privacy laws and the implications for record keeping and preparing to appear in court A clear writing style is enhanced by a lack of legal jargon and clear definitions where legal terminology is needed Competence in Process and Practice Juliet Cassuto Rothman, 2008 Now more than ever the populations social workers must be trained to work with represent the broadest spectrum of humanity in ethnicity culture race religion worldview gender sexual orientation ability and in life experiences This text will prepare students to work with any population they will encounter in their professional career It s divided into 3 parts Unit 1 covers social work processes Unit 2 contains student case examples and unit 3 contains student exercises Case Studies in Generalist Practice Robert F. Rivas, Grafton H. Hull (Jr.),2004 This book is a compilation of real cases submitted by social workers and faculty teaching social work courses The cases help students understand how clients issues and agencies interact as well as see how that understanding connects with the actual doing of generalist social work practice. The cases reflect a broad range of courses in the social work curriculum and the most current CSWE standards Cultural Citizenship and Immigrant Community Identity Hye-Kyung Stella Kang, 2010 Kang explores cultural citizenship and immigrant community identity development in the International District ID of Seattle WA She investigates the particular social political and historical contexts within which a multi ethnic Asian American community identity arose She finds that the ID as a subject is produced and sustained not through a singular identity but through multiple and contingent discourses of history contribution and change Similarly it is constructed through a constant processes of engagement contestation and negotiation between the community and the various larger social and political structures of society as well as among community members. The results suggest that it may be possible for immigrant subjects to alter the discourses that constitute them by generating counter discourses Cross-cultural Practice Karen V. Harper-Dorton, 2007 Acculturation and the Occupational Choice of Immigrant Vietnamese Men Phu Tai Phan, 2003 Human Behavior in the Social Environment José B. Ashford, Craig W. LeCroy, Kathy L. Lortie, 2006 Ashford LeCroy and Lortie's ground breaking book offers students a balanced integrated introduction to human behavior in the social environment Lively and comprehensive this book succeeds by helping students connect foundation knowledge with practice concerns Clarified through the introduction of study tables and concept maps at the end of each discussion behavior in the development chapters the authors look at biopsychosocial development across the life span using an integrative multidimensional approach discussing integrative practice theory treatment and services throughout This multidimensional framework provides a concrete tool for the reader to assess human behavior from a perspective that truly reflects the values and knowledge base of the social work profession Together the book s solid coverage of foundation knowledge integration of the biopsychosocial dimensions for assessing social functioning its multidimensional framework and its use of case studies to illuminate the applied aspects of HBSE content along with the authors consistent attention to diversity successfully combine to give readers a meaningful exciting experience The International Migration Review ,2003 African Refugee Resettlement in the United States Tamar Mott, 2009 Journal of the American Medical Association, 2009-03 Urban Anthropology and Studies of Cultural Systems and World Economic Development, 2006
