Sridharan,2014-11-13 Drawing upon international relations theory this volume conceptualizes possible solutions to the various conflicts in South Asia It analyses the bilateral conflicts between India and Pakistan and other multilateral problems specific to this region Bringing together scholarship from several South Asian countries it offers a well rounded formulation of conflict resolution and cooperation building The volume employs a strong theoretical rubric empirical research and exhaustive fieldwork Its centralizing approach to sustain the diversity of perspectives and arguments makes it an indispensable contribution to strategic studies Understanding Fifty Years of Bangladesh Politics Harun- Or-Rashid,2024-03-13 This book studies the first 50 years of Bangladesh politics since independence It looks at Bangladesh politics as a unique case for study to analyze and understand the role of institutions political parties the election commission election time government judiciary the media etc The volume cross examines the 1971 War of Liberation and the brutal killing of the republic s founding father in 1975 as the two great divides that crystallized in the political arena between the Awami League on the one side and the BNP and Jamaat e Islami on the other Through deep dives on major historical events and key political developments that have since shaped Bangladesh s entire society and politics it then delves into topics including the parliament electoral integrity civil society and politics as they take on a confrontational course An incisive study on major struggles achievements and challenges faced by Bangladesh in the 20th century this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers in political science democracy modern history and South Asia studies Encyclopaedia of Bangladesh Nagendra Kr Singh,2003 Politics and Governance in Bangladesh Ipshita Basu,Joe Devine,Geof Wood,2017-09-08 Since its Independence in 1971 Bangladesh has made remarkable progress in terms of reducing poverty levels achieving high levels of economic growth over a sustained period of time and meeting its Millennium Development Goals MDG targets set by the United Nations With some justification Bangladesh is considered an international development success story and the country appears to be well on track to meet its policy target of becoming a middle income country by 2021 the same year the country will celebrate 50 years of Independence This book explores the central issue of Bangladeshi politics the weakness of governance The coexistence of a poor governance track record and a relatively strong socioeconomic performance makes Bangladesh an intriguing case which throws up exciting and relevant conceptual and policy challenges Structured in four sections Political Settlement Elites and Deep Structures Democracy Citizenship and Values Civil Society Local Context and Political Change Informality and Accountability the book identifies and engages with these challenges Chapters by experts in the field share a number of conceptual and epistemological principles and offer a combination of theoretical and empirical insights and cover a good range of contemporary issues and debate Employing a structurally determinist perspective this book explains politics and society in Bangladesh from a novel perspective Academics in the field of governance and politics in developing countries with a focus on South Asia and Bangladesh will welcome its publication

Islam and Politics in Bangladesh Mubashar Hasan, 2020-01-27 This book conceptualizes the politics of Bangladesh through an Islamic concept called ummah or the global brotherhood of Muslims It demonstrates that against the backdrop of geopolitics capitalism and free flow of ideas localization of this global religious concept at individual level institutional level major party platforms and state has cemented the current political condition in Bangladesh in which religiosity religious intolerance Islamization and extremism take place By exploring the effects of ummah in Bangladeshi politics this book shows how major political parties have mainstreamed political Islam in the country The book rejects the long standing scholarly claim of religious secular distinction in Bangladeshi politics and argues that with most Muslim dominated states there are no major secular parties in Bangladesh There are only Islamic parties which are more or less Islamic The purely rational domain of politics in Bangladesh is long lost and political Islam sets the framework for politics in the country The reason behind this logic of Bangladeshi politics is formed contained and expanded by ummah

Secular and Religious Politics in Pakistan, India, and Bangladesh Nadeem Malik, 2025-07-02 This book thoroughly explores the complex relationship between secularism and religious politics in South Asia It examines the historical and contemporary factors that have influenced the political landscapes of Pakistan India and Bangladesh focusing on how colonial legacies nation building processes and religious ideologies have shaped governance and social structures Through comparative analysis the book delves into the rise of Hindutva in India the struggle between secularism and Islamism in Bangladesh and the role of Islam in Pakistan s politics By integrating diverse theoretical perspectives and historical contexts this book offers a comprehensive understanding of the evolving nature of secularism and religious politics in these three nations It also provides insights into the broader implications for democracy pluralism and religious freedom in South Asia This book is essential reading for scholars policymakers and anyone interested in the intersection of religion and politics in one of the world s most complex and dynamic regions

The Aftermath of the Bangladesh Liberation War of 1971 Amit Ranjan, Taj Hashmi, Mazhar Abbas, 2024-09-02 This book analyses the human dimension during and after the Bangladesh

Liberation War of 1971 The chapters investigate questions of belonging and being an alien civil rights and ethnic demands and broader issues of citizenship and statelessness The analysis centres around the situation of those who crossed into the Indian side of the border during the Liberation War the Bengali speaking population who chose Pakistan as their country after the birth of Bangladesh and stranded Pakistani or Bihari Muslims living in Bangladesh The book addresses three key questions how do the modern nation states of India Pakistan and Bangladesh categorize citizens based on the narratives of 1971 how the acceptance of certain groups as part of the Indian citizenry affected its concept of belonging and after 1971 how do Pakistan and Bangladesh define who is part of their citizenry and how do so called aliens negotiate their identity in national debates A timely contribution to the subject of forced migration citizenship and identities in South Asia edited by three academics with Indian Pakistani and Bangladeshi heritage this book will be of interest to a variety of academics studying the history politics and sociology of South Asia The Far East and Australasia 2003 Europa Publications,2002 A unique survey of each country in the region It includes an extensive collection of facts statistics analysis and directory information in one accessible volume Role of Opposition in Bangladesh Politics Al Masud Hasanuzzaman,1998

Bangladesh in International Politics Muhammad Shamsul Huq,1993 The Politics of Climate Change Knowledge Nowrin Tabassum,2022-03-03 This book addresses political knowledge of climate change and its relation to labelling people affected by climate change either as climate refugees or as climate change induced displaced people or migrants By questioning the knowledge of climate change and subsequent labelling of people this book will spark debate in studies of global climate politics and transnational policy networks Rather than considering the issue of climate change as a given phenomenon the author explores how the politicized knowledge of climate change has been produced in international negotiations and how that knowledge is transmitted from global forums to local country levels via climate change action plans and resilience projects This book introduces the concept of multi scalar knowledge brokers MKBs individual actors who work at multiple levels local national and international to transmit the knowledge of climate change from global level to local level The author uses the primary case study of Bangladesh to demonstrate how the dominant actors in global climate politics the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change UNFCCC and the World Bank as well as the USA and the UK interact with the government and local NGOs in Bangladesh regarding transmitting the knowledge of climate change labelling the uprooted people and implementing resilience projects This book will be of interest to students scholars and practitioners of international relations environmental politics climate change studies political ecology political geography and migration and displacement studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Thanks to the support of libraries working with Knowledge Unlatched www.knowledgeunlatched.org ABC Pol Sci ,2000 Foreign Relations of Bangladesh Harun ur Rashid,2001 Thirty Years of Bangladesh
