The Rise of Science in Islam and the West John W. Livingston,2017-12-14 This is a study of science in Muslim society from its rise in the 8th century to the efforts of 19th century Muslim thinkers and reformers to regain the lost ethos that had given birth to the rich scientific heritage of earlier Muslim civilization The volume is organized in four parts the rise of science in Muslim society in its historical setting of political and intellectual expansion the Muslim creative achievement and original discoveries proponents and opponents of science in a religiously oriented society and finally the complex factors that account for the end of the 500 year Muslim renaissance The book brings together and treats in depth using primary and secondary sources in Arabic Turkish and European languages subjects that are lightly and uncritically brushed over in non specialized literature such as the question of what can be considered to be purely original scientific advancement in Muslim civilization over and above what was inherited from the Greco Syriac and Indian traditions what was the place of science in a religious society and the question of the curious demise of the Muslim scientific renaissance after centuries of creativity The book also interprets the history of the rise achievement and decline of scientific study in light of the religious temper and of the political and socio economic vicissitudes across Islamdom for over a millennium and integrates the Muslim legacy with the history of Latin European accomplishments It sets the stage for the next momentous transmission of science from the West back to the Arabic speaking world of Islam from the last half of the 19th century to the early 21st century the subject of a second volume A Call to Muslims Muḥammad Ilyās,1988 Propagation of Islam Essentials of Islam ,1972

Islamic Review and Muslim India ,1913 Pakistan Our Difficult Neighbour and India's Islamic Dimensions

Brig(Retd) Darshan Khullar,2014-09-01 In this remarkably candid book the author has taken a hard look at Pakistan in his words our difficult neighbour and analysed the reasons as to why the two countries have never been friends and probably will not be in the future at least not in the immediate one The author attributes India s failure to neutralise Pakistan to its kind of near constant Gandhian passive approach to India s security interests The author believes that the future of Muslims in India is bright and that it would be quite a lusterless country without them It is a matter of time before India has its first Muslim Prime Minister but this will happen when the latter represents interests of all Indians and not merely those of the Muslims His study of Muslims is spread of a wide range of inter related perspectives What has been written comes through the author s personal knowledge not through any ideological prism and also secondary observations of other people and least of all through rose tinted glasses He has spared no one who he believes is guilty of committing crimes against the Nation It is a passionate book that ends on an optimistic note Islam and Development Cesar Adib Majul,1980 The Islamic Review,1915 Islam Feisal Abdul Rauf,1996 Lastly the author links knowledge to love as poles that although exoterically appearing as opposites esoterically define the global human reality vis a vis the Divine mandate Throughout this book the author is concerned not only with the philosophical and logical basis of Islam in isolation but with the nature of this basis as it establishes the intellectual religious and spiritual foundations of the modern Muslim enabling him at a personal level to shed the mysteries and paradoxes of the human condition An Introduction to the Study of Islam Masudul Hasan,Abdul Waheed,1974 The Great Guru Nanak and the Muslims N. D. Ahuja,1971 The Cambridge History of India: Turks and Afghans, edited by W. Haig ,1928 Islam and Christianity M. Sıddık Gümüş,2004 The Moslem World ,1929
