Music especially music with text was a powerful force in lively ongoing conversations about the nature of liberty which included such topics as the role of consent in marriage same sex relationships freedom of the press and the freedom to worship or not Among the most common vehicles for stimulating debate about pressing social concerns were the genres of historical drama and legend or myth whose stories became inflected in fascinating ways during the Age of Metternich Interior and imagined worlds memories and fantasies were called up in purely instrumental music and music was privately celebrated for its ability to circumvent the restrictions that were choking the verbal arts Author Kristina Muxfeldt invites us to listen in on these cultural conversations dating from a time when the climate of censorship made the tone of what was said every bit as important as its literal content At this critical moment in European history such things as a performer s delivery spontaneous improvisation or the demeanor of the music could carry forbidden messages of hope and political resistance flying under the censor's radar like a carrier pigeon Rather than trying to decode or fix meanings Muxfeldt concerns herself with the very mechanisms of their communication and she confronts distortions to meaning that form over time as the cultural or political pressures shaping the original expression fade and are eventually forgotten In these pages are accounts of works successful in their own time alongside others that failed to achieve more than a liminal presence among them Schubert's Alfonso und Estrella and his last opera project Der Graf von Gleichen whose libretto was banned even before Schubert set to work composing it Enlivening the narrative are generous music examples reproductions of artwork and facsimiles of autograph material Beethoven Lewis Lockwood, 2003 Music Research Forum .2002 Beethoven studies Barry Cooper, Matthew Pilcher, 2023-04-25 Manchester Beethoven studies presents ten original chapters by scholars with close ties to the University of Manchester It throws new light on many aspects of Beethoven's life and works with a special emphasis on early or little known compositions such as his concert aria Erste Liebe his String Quintet Op 104 and his folksong settings Biographical elements are prominent in a wide ranging reassessment of his religious attitudes and beliefs while Charles Hall founder of the Manchester based Hall Orchestra is revealed to have been a tireless and energetic promoter of Beethoven's music in the later nineteenth century On Bunker's Hill J.
