French Thought and Literary Theory in the UK Irving Goh,2019-10-21 This collection presents a sort of counter history or counter genealogy of the globalization of French thought from the point of view of scholars working in the UK While the dominating discourse would attribute the US as the source of that globalization particularly through the 1966 conference on the Languages of Criticism and the Sciences of Man at Johns Hopkins University this volume of essays serves as a reminder that the UK has also been a principal motor of that globalization The essays take into account how French thought and literary theory have institutionally taken shape in the UK from the 70s to today highlight aspects of French thought that have been of particular pertinence or importance for scholars there and outline how researchers in the UK today are bringing French thought further in terms of teaching and research in this twenty first century In short this volume traces how the country has been behind the reception and development of French thought in Anglophone worlds from the late 70s to the present

MOVING MIRROR OF THEORY:
RECALIBRATING LITERARY INTERPRETATION FROM FORMALISM TO HISTORY Dr. HITESH B JOSHI,2025-10-13

The Moving Mirror of Theory Recalibrating Literary Interpretation from Formalism to History An Evolving Theoretical Lens is neither a passive chronicle nor a nostalgic survey it is an audacious re inscription of the critical enterprise itself The work traces with deliberate precision the tectonic shifts by which literary interpretation has been wrested from the sanctified autonomy of the text and thrust into the volatile matrices of history ideology and power Commencing in the crystalline bastions of Formalism and New Criticism where the literary artifact was venerated as a self enclosed aesthetic mechanism the book charts the subsequent insurgencies that refused such hermetic purity Structuralism Post Structuralism Marxist hermeneutics Feminist insurgencies Postcolonial re readings and the restless energies of New Historicism are not merely enumerated but interrogated as interlocking vectors in a ceaseless dialectic of meaning making Here theory is figured as a moving mirror never static never innocent always refracting the literary text through the inflections of its own historical moment Recalibration becomes both a method and a necessity an ongoing attunement of critical lenses to the shifting constellations of culture politics and epistemology The result is a book that does not simply instruct how to read it compels the reader to reimagine what reading can signify in a world where literature is at once artifact agent and archive of human becoming For scholars students and reflective practitioners of criticism it offers not closure but an invitation to inhabit with rigor and imagination the evolving horizons of interpretation itself
