Beyond Auteurism New Directions In Authorial Film Practices In France Italy And Spain Since The 1980s:

Beyond Auteurism Rosanna Maule, 2008 A study of nine film authors from France Italy and Spain who since the 1980s have blurred the boundaries between art house and mainstream and national and transnational film production It examines how the individuals have maintained a dialectical relationship with the authorial tradition of the national cinema to which each belongs

Performing Authorship Cecilia Sayad, 2013-09-17 The figure of the auteur continues to haunt the study of film resisting both the poststructuralist charges that pointed to its absence and the histories of production that have described its pitfalls In an era defined by the instability of identities and the recycling of works Performing Authorship offers a refreshingly new take on the cinematic auteur proposing that the challenges that once accelerated this figure's critical demise should instead pump new life into it This book is about the drama of creative processes in essay documentary and fiction films with particular emphasis on the effects that the filmmaker's body exerts on our sense of an authorial presence It is an illuminating analysis of films by Jean Luc Godard Woody Allen Agnes Varda Orson Welles Jean Rouch Eduardo Coutinho and Sarah Turner that shows directors shifting between opposite movements towards exposure and masking oscillating between the assertion and divestiture of their authorial control In the process Cecilia Sayad argues the film author is not necessarily at the work's origin nor does it constitute the end product What this new concept of performing authorship describes is the making and unmaking of a subject

Music, Authorship, Narration, and Art Cinema in Europe Michael Baumgartner, Ewelina Boczkowska, 2022-12-30 Music Authorship Narration and Art Cinema in Europe 1940s to 1980s investigates the function of music in European cinema after the Second World War up to the fall of the Berlin wall a period when composers and directors embraced experimentation Through analyses of music and sound in a wide range of iconic films from across Europe the essays in this book provide a nuanced reconsideration of three core themes auteur theory art house film and national cinema Chapters written by an international array of contributors focus on case studies of music in the cinema of Carlos Saura Jean Pierre Melville the Polish School and Romanian directors as well as collaborations between directors and composers including Michelangelo Antonioni and Giovanni Fusco Federico Fellini and Nino Rota Leo Arnshtam and Dmitry Shostakovich and Peter Greenaway and Michael Nyman The contributors shift the emphasis from a director centered view to the working relationship between director and composer and from the visual component to the sonic aspects of these films without ignoring the close correlation between soundtrack and visual elements Enriching our understanding of the complex intertwined nature of authorship in film the role of film music and sound nation state and art cinema and European cinematic history this volume offers a valuable addition to research across music and film studies

Protest Cultures Kathrin Fahlenbrach,Martin Klimke,Joachim Scharloth,2016-03-01 Protest is a ubiquitous and richly varied social phenomenon one that finds expression not only in modern social movements and political organizations but also in grassroots initiatives individual action and creative works It constitutes a distinct cultural domain one whose symbolic content is regularly deployed by media and advertisers among other actors Yet within social movement scholarship such cultural considerations have been comparatively neglected Protest Cultures A Companion dramatically expands the analytical perspective on protest beyond its political and sociological aspects It combines cutting edge synthetic essays with concise accessible case studies on a remarkable array of protest cultures outlining key literature and future lines of inquiry

Action Cinema Since 2000 Chris Holmlund,Lisa Purse,Yvonne Tasker,2024-05-16 Action Cinema Since 2000 addresses an increasingly lively and evolving field of scholarship probing the definition and testing the potential of action cinema to reframe the mode for the 21st century Contributors examine a broad range of content from blockbusters to smaller independent films originating from China Korea India France the USA and Mexico Ranging from JSA Joint Security Area Gondonggeonyngbi guyeok 2000 to Polite Society 2023 they consider the changing modes of action cinema with streaming assuming global importance and an ever increasing number of generic blends They consider under explored areas of action film particularly how race ethnicity gender and age figure in narratives and through image and soundtracks Overall the book demonstrates how 21st century action cinema engages with and reflects geopolitical creative and industrial developments Contributors argue that it continues to offer fantasies of empowerment and mobility that say much about how power is understood in diverse contexts today

Hollywood's Artists Virginia Wright Wexman,2020-07-21 Today the director is considered the leading artistic force behind a film The production of a Hollywood movie requires the labor of many people from screenwriters and editors to cinematographers and boom operators but the director as author of the film overshadows them all How did this concept of the director become so deeply ingrained in our understanding of cinema In Hollywood's Artists Virginia Wright Wexman offers a groundbreaking history of how movie directors became cinematic auteurs that reveals and pinpoints the influence of the Directors Guild of America DGA Guided by Frank Capra's mantra one man one film the Guild has portrayed its director members as the creators responsible for turning Hollywood entertainment into cinematic art Wexman details how the DGA differentiated itself from other industry unions focusing on issues of status and creative control as opposed to bread and butter concerns like wages and working conditions She also traces the Guild's struggle for creative and legal power exploring subjects from the language of on screen credits to the House Un American Activities Committee's investigations of the movie industry Wexman emphasizes the gendered nature of images of the great director demonstrating how the DGA promoted the idea of the director as a masculine hero Drawing on a broad array of archival sources interviews and theoretical and sociological insight Hollywood s Artists sheds new light on the ways in which the Directors Guild of America has shaped the role and image of directors both within the Hollywood system and in the culture at large

Spanishness in the Spanish Novel and Cinema of the 20th - 21st Century Cristina Sánchez Conejero,2007 Explores the general concept of Spanishness as all things related to Spain specifically as the multiple meanings of Spanishness and the different ways of being Spanish are depicted in 20th 21st century literary and cinematic fiction of Spain This book also represents a call for a re evaluation of what being Spanish means

Tsai Ming-liang and a Cinema of Slowness Song Hwee Lim,2014-01-31 This is the first dedicated study of all of Tsai Ming Liangs feature length films to date One of contemporary cinemas most distinctive filmmakers Tsais films are typically slow paced and minimalist in plot dialogue and characterization full of static long takes with very little happening within the shots Rather than provide a chronological survey of Tsais films the book is theorized through the concept of slowness It examines the two filmic elements sights and sound through detailed analysis of Tsais use of stillness and silence it also situates Tsais filmmaking in the context of a trend in contemporary cinema toward slowness by directors as diverse as Abbas Kiarostami Bela Tarr and Aleksandr Sokurov The author argues that slowness in cinema can be seen as a response to the increasing pace of mainstream films as well as to the unstoppable speed of a postmodern world compressed in time and space

Bibliographie d'histoire littéraire française Otto Klapp,1960

Five Directors Kate Ince,2019-01-04 Auteurism the idea that a director of a film is its source of meaning and should retain creative control over the finished product has been one of film studies most important paradigms ever since the French New Wave of the late 1950s and early 1960s and the adoption of the term auteur by Andrew Sarris Through the popular controversial and critically acclaimed films of Olivier Assayas Jacques Audiard the Dardenne brothers Michael Haneke and Francois Ozon this book looks into how the meaning of auteur has changed over this half century and assesses the current state of Francophone auteur cinema It combines French philosophical and sociological approaches with methodologies from the Anglo American fields of gender studies queer theory and postmodernism This volume will be of interest to researchers and students of film studies European cinema and French and Francophone studies as well as to film enthusiasts

Negotiating the auteur Julia Dobson,2019-01-25 This book provides the first detailed analysis of the work of four important contemporary directors whose work falls between the reductive labels of auteur cinema and popular cinema Their work is contextualised within this timely investigation into the shifting relationship between the privileged status of the auteur and questions of genre gender and cinematic production in France today This important contribution to understanding the shifting landscapes of contemporary French film identifies an essential intermediacy in the films of these directors which works to undo a series of dominant oppositions generic template and contestation public collectivity and personal intimacy to offer a new perspective on the location of the political in contemporary French cinema The four chapters provide detailed critical analysis of films by Dominique Cabrera Laetitia Masson No mie Lvovsky and Marion Vernoux and present common thread including the possible construction of social intimacy the political demystification of romance narratives and the role of nostalgia to argue that their work uses popular genres in order to challenge dominant cultural representation that resonates beyond the immediate parameters of contemporary French cinema This book will be of interest to researchers working in French and European cinema to students of Film Studies and French and Francophone Studies and to film enthusiasts Authorship and Film

David A. moves smoothly between environmental issues and aesthetic and practical concerns Choice Claire Denis Martine Beugnet, 2019-01-04 Claire Denis is one of France's most acclaimed and original filmmakers. Since her remarkable debut success with Chocolat (1986), she has produced an impressive series of features which have been intriguing, visually striking, and often highly controversial, including Beau Travail (2000) and Trouble Every Day (2001). Beugnet provides a thematic and stylistic framework within which to consider Denis's work as well as a comprehensive analysis of individual films. She highlights the resonance of Denis's films in relation to ongoing debates about French national identity and culture and issues of postcolonial identity, alienation, and transgression, as well as examining their exploration of the interface between sexuality, desire, and sensuality. This is an essential introduction to Denis and a sophisticated and illuminating study of her work to date.

Living Cinema, 1973 Performing Authorship Cecilia Sayad, The figure of the auteur continues to haunt the study of film, resisting both the poststructuralist charges that pointed to its absence and the histories of production that have described its pitfalls. In an era defined by the instability of identities and the recycling of works, Performing Authorship offers a refreshingly new take on the cinematic auteur, proposing that the challenges that once accelerated this figure's critical demise should instead pump new life into it. This book is about the drama of creative processes in essay, documentary, and fiction films, with particular emphasis on t
