Cultural Psychology Robyn M. Holmes, 2020 Cultural Psychology explores how culture broadly connects to how individuals think act and feel across diverse cultural communities and settings highlighting the applied nature of cultural psychology to everyday life events and situations Designed for undergraduate students the text contains traditional and non traditional content is multidisciplinary and uses culture specific and cross cultural examples to highlight the connections between culture and psychological phenomena Chapters contain numerous teaching and learning tools including case studies key words chapter summary thought provoking questions and class and experiential activities

Macropsychology Malcolm MacLachlan, Joanne McVeigh, 2021-03-29 This volume argues for the development of a macro perspective within psychology that more effectively incorporates social structures systems policies and institutions The book emphasizes how social structures and systems can ultimately promote or erode psychological wellbeing Macropsychology is concerned with understanding up or how we can influence the settings and conditions of the society in which we live

Psychology has traditionally been more interested in understanding down that is with the behaviour of individuals and groups in inter psychic and intra psychic and in neurological and biological processes This volume argues that psychology can more effectively contribute at the macro or societal level by addressing grand challenges and global goals using big data and intervening at the population level Bringing together social organizational cultural and health psychology research the book demonstrates a broad range of areas benefitting from a macropsychology perspective particularly areas integral to the realization of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Contributors address the value of macropsychological perspectives in addressing sub topics such as Mental health Personality traits and social structure Disability rights Food systems Humanitarian work psychology Macropsychology A Population Science for Sustainable Development Goals aims to recognise and give impetus to a neglected perspective within psychology and to inspire a paradigm widening within the field of psychology facilitating greater involvement with social justice and human rights Our Common Denominator Christoph Antweiler, 2016-04-01 Since the politicization of anthropology in the 1970s most anthropologists have been reluctant to approach the topic of universals that is phenomena that occur regularly in all known human societies In this volume Christoph Antweiler reasserts the importance of these cross cultural commonalities for anthropological research and for life and co existence beyond the academy The question presented here is how anthropology can help us approach humanity in its entirety understanding the world less as a globe with an emphasis on differences but as a planet from a vantage point open to commonalities Peaceful Selves Laura Eramian, 2017-11-01 This ethnography of personhood in post genocide Rwanda investigates how residents of a small town grapple with what kinds of persons they ought to become in the wake of violence Based on fieldwork carried out over the course of a decade it uncovers how conflicting moral demands emerge from the 1994 genocide from cultural contradictions around good personhood and from both state and popular visions for the future What emerges is a profound dissonance in town residents selfhood While they strive to be agents of change who can catalyze a new era of modern Rwandan nationhood they are also devastated by the genocide and struggle to recover a sense of selfhood and belonging in the absence of kin friends and neighbors In drawing out the contradictions at the heart of self making and social life in contemporary Rwanda this book asserts a novel argument about the ordinary lives caught in global post conflict imperatives to remember and to forget to mourn and to prosper Cultural Anthropology William A. Haviland, 1981

Anthropology Carol R. Ember, Melvin Ember, Peter N. Peregrine, 2014-09-02 Explains how and why human cultures vary so greatly across space and time Anthropology provides students with a comprehensive and scientific introduction to the holistic four fields of anthropology and the important role of applied anthropology Readers will understand humans in all their variety and why such variety exists It also shows students how anthropological skill sets can be applied beyond academia The fourteenth edition places an increased emphasis on new explanations and the necessity to evaluate these new explanations logically as well as on the basis of the available evidence REVEL from Pearson is an immersive learning experience designed for the way today's student read think and learn REVEL modernizes familiar and respected course content with dynamic media interactives and assessments and empowers educators to increase engagement in the course better connecting with students The result is increased student engagement and improved learning Teaching and Learning Experience This program will provide a better teaching and learning experience for you and your students It Immersive Learning Experiences with REVEL REVEL delivers immersive learning experiences designed for the way today's students read think and learn Engaging Pedagogically Driven Design Learning Objectives in each chapter correspond to chapter summary materials A Clear Understanding of humans Readers will learn the major variations in human kinship economic political and religious systems and why it is significant Focus on Contemporary issues Students will understand contemporary social problems and how anthropology might be used to address them Non-Western Educational Traditions Timothy Reagan, 2017-07-06 Indigenous Knowledge Systems Concluding Reflections Questions for Reflection and Discussion Author Index Subject Index Cultural Anthropology Conrad Phillip Kottak, 2000 Cultural Anthropology Serena Nanda, Richard L. Tables of Classes and Sections, Giving (a) Number of Women and Men (b) Number Registered and Passed, Main University University of Texas, 1926 University of Texas Bulletin, 1926 Cultural Anthropology Roger M. Keesing, 1976 CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY A CONTEMPORARY PERSPECTIVE Third Edition is a sophisticated synthesis of social and cultural anthropology Keesing was concerned with the political and ethical implications of anthropological fieldwork and was sensitive to the global conditions of inequality caused by the spread of capitalist relations of production Thus his book is more political than other introductory texts in the field Keesing was also committed to the belief that students should not merely memorize terms and theories but should also be challenged to ponder the deep questions raised by human diversity Roger Keesing's untimely death in 1992 necessitated that a co author execute his planned revision Dr Andrew Strathern was chosen because like Keesing his training is in the British social anthropological tradition his fieldwork has concentrated on the Pacific and his recent teaching experience has acquainted him with American cultural anthropology In this revision Dr Strathern preserved Keesing's vision arguments and the ethnographies presented as illustrations of Keesing's theories while also examining each sentence to determine whether its assertions needed to be updated modified or abandoned Small changes made in this way incorporated a larger aim of updating and recasting the book to better fit and reflect a world 20 years since publication of the first edition Cultural Anthropology Nirmal Kumar Bose, 1929 New York Court of Appeals. Records and Briefs. New York (State)., Bulletin University of Minnesota, 1915 Thinking

Anthropologically Philip Carl Salzman, Patricia C. Rice, 2008 This book focuses on nine themes that are at the heart of anthropology themes that permeate all fields of anthropology and that prepare learners to think anthropologically before beginning to study the field in any depth KEY TOPICS Chapters written by specialists in each topical area provide quality coverage of areas that the chosen authors are especially knowledgeable about and interested in Chapter titles include What Anthropologists Look For Patterns Thinking Holistically Thinking Theoretically Using Science to Think Anthropologically Thinking about Change Biological Evolution and Culture Change Why Do Anthropological Experts Disagree Thinking and Acting Ethically in Anthropology Applying Anthropological Knowledge and How to Take Anthropology Tests For a clearer and more meaningful understanding of anthropology Oxford University Gazette University of Oxford, 1916 Body Arts and Modernity Elizabeth Ewart, Michael O'Hanlon, 2007 Contributors to this volume draw together ideas emerging from the anthropology of the body the Western interest in body ornamentation and the recent revival of specific body arts such as tattooing and piercing Archeology Anthropology
