Devaluing Public Apologies in the Age of Social Media Joshua M. Bentley, 2024-12-15 In Devaluing Public Apologies in the Age of Social Media Joshua M Bentley argues that apologies are losing their meaning in American society as organizations and public figures treat them as strategical tools without considering their ethical implications As the demand for apologies in the age of social media continues to increase exponentially Bentley posits the apologies that are given carry less and less weight to the public This book examines how controversial figures like Donald Trump and Joe Rogan as well as brands like Google and Bud Light have addressed public controversies both effectively and ineffectively illustrating how social media polarization and cancel culture are changing the way apologies are given and received If apologies are to serve their historical role of resolving conflict peacefully Bentley argues they must be placed back into their proper ethical context This book offers insight on how individuals and organizations can ensure their apologies reflect their authentic values Scholars of communication ethics media studies political science and public relations will find it especially useful

The Writers Directory, 2013 Who? When? Where? What?, 1925 Mass Communication Ralph E. Hanson, 2024-12-09 The best selling Mass Communication Living in a Media World offers an accessible introduction to mass communication equipping students with the critical thinking skills to become savvy media consumers Using a storytelling approach the text weaves in examples drawn from everyday life making it easier for students to retain the material and connect it to their own media experiences Readers are encouraged to consider the media industry from the inside out and in doing so discover the many dimensions of mass communication that operate in our society This newly revised Ninth Edition highlights the aftermath of how the media industry and media consumers have evolved since the global pandemic closely examining the changing the face of media today

Engaging Audience M. Elizabeth Weiser, Brian Fehler, Angela Marta González, 2009 This collection of essays about audience awareness from professionals in the English public relations and writing fields is based on the latest work of scholars Lisa Ede and Andrea Lunsford This collection builds upon Lisa Ede and Andrea Lunsford s groundbreaking work to examine the rhetorical concept of audience as it relates to twenty first century teaching and learning Editors M Elizabeth Weiser Brian M Fehler and Angela M Gonz lez bring together compositionists from the departments of English communications public relations and writing to offer insights that serve as a guide for incorporating audience awareness into the contemporary classroom

Contributors engage in a dialogue with Ede and Lunsford's previously published essays Audience Addressed Audience Invoked The Role of Audience in Composition Theory and Pedagogy and Representing Audience Successful Discourse and Disciplinary Critique as well as their new essay Among the Audience On Audience in an Age of New Literacies written especially for this collection Through these engagements contributors offer insights on audience from divergent perspectives composition pedagogy new media studies service learning and professional writing diversity and rhetorical and literary theory that establish a third category in the addressed invoked binary an audience updated that takes various professional and cultural forms but is most evidently audience interacting

Modernisation of Chinese Culture Jana S. Rošker, Nataša Vampelj Suhadolnik, 2013 The editors are grateful to the Chiang Ching kuo Foundation for its generous support of their research work which enabled them to publish the present book The present book carefully maps the Chinese modernisation discourse highlighting its relationship to other similar discourses and situating it within historical and theoretical contexts In contrast to the majority of recent discussions of a Chinese development model that tend to focus more on institutional than cultural factors and are more narrowly concerned with economic matters than overall social development the book offers several important focal points for many presently overlooked issues and dilemmas The multifaceted perspectives contained in this anthology are not limited to economic social and ecological issues but also include political and social functions of ideologies and cultural conditioned values representing the axial epistemological grounds of modern Chinese society 2011 was the 100th anniversary of the Xinhai Revolution The centennial is relevant not only in terms of state ideology but also plays a significant role within academic research into Chinese society and culture This historic turning point likewise represents the symbolic and concrete linkages and tensions between tradition and modernity progress and conservatism traditional values and the demands for adjustment to contemporary societies The book shows that Chinese transition from tradition to modernity cannot be understood in a framework of a unified general model of society but rather through a more complex insight into the interrelations among elements of physical environment social structure philosophy history and culture
