Reporting Humanitarian Disasters in a Social Media Age Glenda Cooper, 2018-10-26 From the tsunami to Hurricane Sandy the Nepal earthquake to Syrian refugees defining images and accounts of humanitarian crises are now often created not by journalists but by ordinary citizens using Twitter Facebook YouTube Instagram and Snapchat But how has the use of this content and the way it is spread by social media altered the rituals around disaster reporting the close if not symbiotic relationship between journalists and aid agencies and the kind of crises that are covered Drawing on more than 100 in depth interviews with journalists and aid agency press officers participant observations at the Guardian BBC and Save the Children UK as well as the ordinary people who created the words and pictures that framed these disasters this book reveals how humanitarian disasters are covered in the 21st century and the potential consequences for those who posted a tweet a video or photo without ever realising how far it would go

The Routledge Handbook of Consumer Behaviour in Hospitality and Tourism Saurabh Kumar Dixit,2017-04-07 Consumer behaviour is one of the most explored topics in tourism and hospitality marketing interchangeably denoted by the terms traveller behaviour tourist behaviour or guest behaviour Consumer behaviour acts as an origin for every tourism and hospitality marketing activity It offers an understanding of why people tend to choose certain products or services and what sort of factors influence them in making their decision The decision process of buying tourism products or services takes time because they are mostly intangible in nature due to which there are many risks involved in their buying process The Routledge Handbook of Consumer Behaviour in Hospitality and Tourism aims to explore and critically examine current debates critical reflections of contemporary ideas controversies and pertinent queries relating to the rapidly expanding discipline of consumer behaviour in hospitality and tourism The Handbook offers a platform for dialogue across disciplinary and national boundaries and areas of study through its diverse coverage It is divided into six parts Part I offers an overview of consumer behaviour Part II focuses on the service quality perspectives of consumer behaviour Part III deliberates on customer satisfaction and consumer behaviour linkages Part IV explores the re patronage behaviour of consumers Part V addresses the vital issues concerning online consumer behaviour and Part VI elaborates upon other emerging paradigms of consumer behaviour. Although there is no dearth of empirical studies on different viewpoints of consumer behaviour, there is a scarcity of literature providing conceptual information. The present Handbook is organised to offer a comprehensive theoretical body of knowledge narrating consumer behaviour especially for hospitality and tourism businesses and operations. It attempts to fill this research gap by offering a globalised volume comprising chapters organised using both practical and academic approaches. This Handbook is essential reading for students, researchers and academics of Hospitality as well as those of Tourism, Marketing, International Business and Consumer Behaviour.

Participatory Journalism Jane B. Singer, David Domingo, Ari Heinonen, Alfred Hermida, Steve Paulussen, Thorsten Quandt, Zvi Reich, Marina Vujnovic, 2011-03-21

Who makes the news in a digital age? Participatory Journalism offers fascinating insights into how journalists in Western democracies are thinking about and dealing with the inclusion of content produced and published by the public. A timely look at digital news, the changes it is bringing for journalists and an industry in crisis. Original data throughout in the form of in-depth interviews with dozens of journalists at leading news organizations in ten Western democracies. Provides a unique model of the news-making process and its openness to user participation in five stages. Gives a first-hand look at the workings and challenges of online journalism on a global scale through data that has been seamlessly combined so that each chapter presents the views of journalists in many nations, highlighting both similarities and differences, both national and individual.

Handbook on E-marketing for Tourism Destinations Peter Varlow, 2008

The internet and other new technologies have changed the tourism industry in an unprecedented way and keeping pace has become challenging. Online information is now one of the primary influences on consumer decisions in nearly all major markets. For example, 41 per cent of tourists arriving in Spain in 2007 had booked through the internet and in the United States the number of trips bought online exceeded those purchased offline. Such changes are impacting and influencing the way destinations and companies manage and market themselves.
