How to Teach College James W. Loewen, 2025-04-22 A posthumous book by the bestselling author of Lies My Teacher Told Me sharing the strategies and secrets of an award winning fifty year career as a college professor Not a few professors teach solely because they have to to hold a position that lets them do what they really want to do which is their work their research their writing Those professors miss the joys of teaching from the introduction to How to Teach College Widely known as the bestselling author of Lies My Teacher Told Me Everything Your American History Textbook Got Wrong James W Loewen who passed away in 2021 was a leading sociologist of race relations and a prizewinning college educator With a teaching career spanning over half a century at Tougaloo College Harvard University University of Vermont and Catholic University Loewen taught the way he wrote with creativity humor and a high expectation that students can handle the truth How to Teach College is an invaluable resource for professors teaching in increasingly fraught American classrooms With a special emphasis on teaching students from diverse backgrounds and potentially controversial subjects this posthumously published book comes to us in Loewen's vibrant original and inimitable voice. In it he offers advice from the epic how to convey a love of one's topic and motivate students to become lifelong learners to the technical how to design a syllabus, manage the classroom, testing and grading, all drawing on firsthand anecdotes from his own courses on sociology and race relations. Edited by Loewen's son, Nicholas Loewen, a longtime high school teacher and sociology professor, Michael Dawson, How to Teach College is sure to inspire generations of teachers to come.

Growing up in America's Golden Age and Growing Old in the Age of AI James Ottavio Castagnera, 2025-01-15. As the title suggests, Part One of this book chronicles the so-called Golden Age of America from the perspective of a Baby Boomer growing up in the latter half of the 20th century. The first ten chapters are designed to paint as clear a picture as possible of this alleged Golden Age by presenting vignettes from the author's own life, complimented by commentaries that place these vignettes into a broader socio-political context. The intended result is a more balanced view of this time in history. In Part Two, the author draws a portrait of more recent times and endeavors to predict what lies ahead for all of us in the Age of AI. In 1945, the technologies on the white magic side of the scientific spectrum contributed to the unprecedented prosperity of the half-century of America's purported Golden Age. In 2025, the author posits that the soon-to-be dominant technology we have labeled Generative Artificial Intelligence poses an existential threat to our prosperity and our democracy, but also the potential following a likely period of wrenching trials and tribulations for a new Golden Age.

Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas Sharon Kane, 2025-04-23. The fifth edition of Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas: Enhancing Knowledge in the Disciplines provides readers with the knowledge, motivation, tools, and confidence for integrating literacy in their disciplinary classrooms. Offering a literature-based approach to teaching disciplinary literacy, the new edition shares important ways in which teachers of courses in the disciplines can enhance student learning of subject matter and skills while also fostering their growth in the many facets of literacy. Throughout each chapter, Kane provides engaging and creative strategies and activities to make literacy come alive in discipline-specific courses and to encourage students to explore and learn in the classroom. Embedded in each chapter are examples, resources, and strategies to help readers actively engage with and implement literacy practices. These features include Teaching in Action examples by subject area, Activating Prior Knowledge activities to stimulate critical thinking to prepare readers to learn complex theoretical and conceptual material about teaching, learning, and literacy, and end-of-chapter Application Activities to apply field experiences to classroom use. New to the Fifth Edition: Every chapter of this new edition is updated to reflect the current approaches, standards, and benchmarks for discipline-specific literacy. A new introduction with reading activities for professors to exemplify a common reading experience with their students, supported by online reading materials. New book talks to highlight books that show disciplinary thinking in action, including literature related to art, physical education, economics, computer science, engineering, food science, music, robotics, environmental science, family and consumer science.
