Contrastive Linguistics And The Language Teacher By Jacek Fisiak:

Contrastive Linguistics and the Language Teacher Jacek Fisiak, 1981 Contrastive Linguistics and the Language Teachers Jacek Fisiak, 1981 The Relation of Theoretical and Applied Linguistics Olga Miseska Tomic, Roger W. Shuy, 2012-12-06

The relationship of theoretical and applied linguistics has lately prompted numerous debates. This volume originated at one of them. The essence of most of the chapters of all of them except Fraser's and Davies's was actually presented at the Round Table on The Relationships of Theoretical and Applied Linguistics organized during the 7th World Congress of Applied Linguistics held in Brussels in August 1984. Individually and collectively the chapters assembled here offer support to the idea that applied linguistics should not be juxtaposed to theoretical linguistics; it is a field of research with theoretical as well as applied aspects. Written by different authors from a wide variety of different countries, the chapters may at times express views that are not totally consistent. Nevertheless, we believe that the variability of viewpoints counts among the merits rather than the defaults of this internationally written and edited volume. It is our hope that it will prove stimulating to linguists and practitioners in related fields and instructive to students. We wish to express our thanks to Albert Valdman for the interest he has shown in the volume and to record our appreciation to our editors in particular, Eliot Werner and Declan Scully for their tolerance and patience.

Languages in Contact and Contrast Vladimir Ivir, Damir Kalogjera, 2011-04-20

The papers in this collection throw fresh light on the relation between language contact and contrastive linguistics. The book focuses equally on the mutual influence of linguistic systems in contact and on the language contrasts that govern the linguistic behaviour of the bilingual speaker.

Contrastive Pragmatics Wieslaw Oleksy, 1989-01-01

This volume deals with a variety of pragmatic issues involved in cross language and interlanguage studies as well as second language acquisition and cross cultural studies. Part I contains papers dealing with general issues stemming from contrastive work, for example, the question of tertium comparationis and its place in the development of contrastive studies as well as the applicability of generalizations proposed by speech act theorists in contrasting concrete languages and cultures. The second part tackles a number of pragmatic issues involved in second language learners' written productions, classroom discourse as well as more general questions pertaining to pragmatic errors and learners' interlanguage. An Index of terms and an Index of names complete the volume.

Contrasting Languages Tomasz P. Krzeszowski, 2011-06-01

TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS is a series of books that open new perspectives in our understanding of language. The series publishes state-of-the-art work on core areas of linguistics across theoretical frameworks as well as studies that provide new insights by building bridges to neighbouring fields such as neuroscience and cognitive science. TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS considers itself a forum for cutting edge research based on solid empirical data on language in its various manifestations, including sign languages. It regards linguistic variation in its synchronic and diachronic dimensions as well as in its social contexts as important sources of insight for a better understanding of the design of linguistic systems and the ecology and evolution of language TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS publishes monographs and outstanding dissertations as well as edited volumes which provide the opportunity to address controversial topics from different empirical and theoretical viewpoints High quality standards are ensured through anonymous reviewing

Contrastive Linguistics Wenguo Pan,Tham Wai Mun,2007-07-10 Contrastive Linguistics is the first book written by a linguist from mainland China on the histories and principles of comparing and contrasting Chinese and Western languages specifically English From Wilhelm von Humboldt s initial study in comparative linguistics to the present day traditional scholarship in contrastive linguistics has taken a Western perspective and shown how foreign languages relate to the Indo European language family However such a view has a limited scope and there is an alternative history to contrastive linguistics This book is an attempt by Professor Wenguo Pan to redress the balance in contrastive linguistics comparing Western languages to Chinese rather than vice versa He provides a survey of contrastive linguistics in China throughout the past century and aims to open a window for the world to see what the new generations of Chinese linguists are doing in this exciting field and to start a dialogue between scholars of different backgrounds and linguistic traditions Contrastive Linguistics looks at the history of this discipline both in Europe and in China Professor Pan presents a survey of the historical philosophical and methodological foundations of the discipline but also examines its scope in relation to general comparative anthropological and applied linguistics This book will be of interest to academics interested in a new perspective on contrastive linguistics or Chinese linguistics
