Learning by Doing Richard DuFour, Rebecca DuFour, Robert Eaker, Thomas W. Many, Mike Mattos, Anthony Muhammad, 2024-05-07 25 years on the PLC at Work process continues to produce results across the United States and worldwide In this fourth edition of the bestseller Learning by Doing the authors use updated research and time tested knowledge to address current education challenges from learning gaps exacerbated by the COVID 19 pandemic to the need to drive a highly effective multitiered system of supports This book will help K 12 administrators school leaders and teacher teams Build shared knowledge of both critical vocabulary and the concepts underlying the key PLC terms Learn new more in depth strategies for coaching in a PLC at Work Make honest assessments of student learning examine their school culture and implement conventional practices from a fresh critical perspective Take immediate and specific steps to close the knowing doing gap and implement PLC concepts in their school and district Recognize that the knowledge needed to support students in achieving higher levels is readily available and the next step is to transform this awareness into an action plan for school improvement Follow the step by step format outlined in each chapter to advance their school s PLC journey and drive continuous improvement Contents Introduction Chapter 1 A Guide to Action for Professional Learning Communities at Work Chapter 2 Defining a Clear and Compelling Purpose Chapter 3 Building the Collaborative Culture of a Professional Learning Community Chapter 4 Coaching Collaborative Teams in a Professional Learning Community at Work Chapter 5 Creating a Results Orientation in a Professional Learning Community Chapter 6 Establishing a Focus on Learning Chapter 7 Creating Team Developed Common Formative Assessments Chapter 8 Responding When Some Students Don t Learn Chapter 9 Hiring Orienting and Retaining New Staff Chapter 10 Addressing Conflict and Celebrating in a Professional Learning Community Chapter 11 Implementing the Professional Learning Community Process Districtwide Conclusion Touching the Emotions Creating a Culture of Caring References Index The Creation of a Professional Learning Community for School Leaders Amalia Humada- Ludeke, 2013-09-03 The unwavering culture of continuous improvement efforts to bring about school change has irrevocably changed the role expectations for the school leader The school leader in the 21st century is increasingly perceived as an instructional leader expected to implement whole school reform models that can shape teacher practice and influence student outcomes The significant changes in role expectations for school leaders present considerable challenges to an educational system that was not designed to incorporate these conceptualizations In light of the increased acceptance of changed leadership expectations the elements that are needed for developing supporting and sustaining instructional leaders who can lead systemic change efforts are frequently not present are fragmented or are observed at various developmental stages throughout the pK 20 pipeline This book is centered on the learning and changed behaviors of school leaders who engaged in a sustained job embedded professional learning community facilitated through a university district partnership The learning from the findings suggested that job embedded learning with their peers can be instrumental for these principals to build the capacity to lead systemic change efforts The findings further suggested that creating conditions for new understanding to occur and sustained opportunities to apply new learning in context to their role entailed a collaborative effort by a partnership involving two separate institutions with different priorities The author makes a case for the educational pipeline to prioritize the support and understanding of complex systemic change efforts and innovations as they are linked to school improvement
