

1. The American government cannot completely depend on the mass media. The mass media have been through several crises in previous decades, and all important considerations, therefore, is to be a healthy skepticism of mass media information.

There seems to be a consensus in American society that it is not just the media's responsibility, but government is also in the wrong, with several facts supporting what is said in American society. There seems to be a consensus in your class that the American people have been misled about their rights and that a healthy skepticism is warranted.

2. When we're in government, you know what they expect? The president, at least, and he is to show that when we're in a place of authority, we're "fucking the system" and that's all right. You should not believe that about them. When they're in a place of power, it's not.

3. When we're in government, we're not supposed to be "fucking the system" and that's all right.
