Course Objective:

The purpose of English 1A is to introduce you to academic writing and develop your critical reading, thinking and writing skills. The researching, reading, writing and editing skills you will learn in this course are designed to help you not just in this class, but in all academic coursework regardless of your major. We will be reading and reflecting upon a broad spectrum of primarily non-fiction prose designed to help you develop and express your own ideas with clarity, precision and effectiveness. Class discussions, peer workshops and self-assessment through a Metacognitive Journal and Term Portfolio are all elements of the course that will allow you to take an active role in your growth and assessment throughout the term.

Student Objectives:

- Apply critical reading/thinking/writing skills analyzing and writing, both in and out-of-class essays, about various freshman composition level readings including essays, fiction and non-fiction.
- Demonstrate the ability to follow academic conventions by formatting expository essays, including page-layout, parenthetical citations and Works Cited entries, in the current standard MLA format
- Write freshman-level essays that follow the various stages of essay writing, including pre-writing, thesis development, illustration and support of the thesis using concrete,
