Cultural Insights for Christian Leaders (Mission in Global Community) Douglas McConnell, 2018-07-17 Christianity Today 2019 Book Award Winner This volume helps leaders and leaders in training become students of culture who can then contextualize what they learn for their own organizational settings Douglas McConnell a respected leader in the worlds of missiology and higher education enables readers to understand intercultural dynamics so they can shape their organizational cultures and lead their organizations in a missional direction This is the latest volume in an award winning series emphasizing mission as partnership with Christians around the globe Family Firms and Business Families in

Cross-Cultural Perspective Tobias Koellner, 2023-02-13 This edited volume provides an anthropological study of family businesses and business families In previous research on family firms and business families the comparative cross cultural approach of anthropology has so far received little attention As a result family firms and business families are too often analyzed without considering cultural and kinship differences adequately Similarly although the topics of kinship and the economy are central to anthropological analysis research on family firms and business families has been a marginal topic only that lacks in depth discussions within anthropology This volume breaks the mold by offering new empirical and theoretical insights into discussion about business families and family firms from a comparative cross cultural perspective It first addresses how the business family can be defined in different cultures and how kinship becomes understandable as a process and through doing family In this the book provides a systematic comparison of the connections between family kinship and economic activity in different cultures whereas many of the previous studies have concentrated on only one or a few regions or cultures It also shows the complexities and challenges when grounding the analysis of economic activity and entrepreneurship in cultural context A Dictionary of Cultural Anthropology Luis Vivanco, 2018-09-20 This new dictionary comprises more than 400 entries providing concise authoritative definitions for a range of concepts relating to cultural anthropology as well as important findings and intellectual figures in the field Entries include adaptation and kinship scientific racism and writing culture providing readers with a wide ranging overview of the subject Accessibly written and engaging A Dictionary of Cultural Anthropology is authored by subject experts and presents anthropology as a dynamic and lively field of enquiry Complemented by a global list of anthropological organizations more than 20 figures and tables to illustrate the entries and web links pointing to useful external sources this is an essential text for undergraduates studying anthropology and also serves those studying allied subjects such as archaeology politics economics geography sociology and gender studies

The Relativity of Deviance John Curra,2019-10-21 The Relativity of Deviance is a primer on the constructivist perspective on deviance the idea that deviance cannot be explained in terms of absolutes nor can it be understood apart from its social setting The book is frequently used alongside all of the major core deviance textbooks on the market It answers such questions as What is deviant What is deviant behavior How should the deviant be treated Why is the same act sometimes praised and sometimes condemned Readers will see that what qualifies as deviance varies from place to place time to time and situation to situation The book explores some of the most frequent contexts for deviant behavior in ways that challenge definitive or objective judgments The Fifth Edition has been updated to include the most current developments in American society including deviance at the highest levels of national politics and corporate life sex abuse scandals the opioid crisis and the growing decriminalization of marijuana

Study Guide to Accompany Cultural Anthropology Margaret Rauch,1998 Rome and the Classic Maya Rebecca Storey,Glenn R Storey,2017-01-20 This volume compares two of the most famous cases of civilizational collapse that of the Roman Empire and the Classic Maya world First examining the concept of collapse and how it has been utilized in the historical archaeological and anthropological study of past complex societies Storey and Storey draw on extensive archaeological evidence to consider the ultimate failure of the institutions infrastructure and material culture of both of these complex cultures Detailing the relevant economic political social and environmental factors behind these notable falls Rome and the Classic Maya contends that a phenomenon of slow collapse has repeatedly occurred in the course of human history complex civilizations are shown to eventually come to an end and give way to new cultures Through their analysis of these two ancient case studies the authors also present intriguing parallels to the modern world and offer potential lessons for the future

Decolonizing Europe Patricia Ferraz de Matos,Livio Sansone,2025-11-01 Revived by the global resonance of the Black Lives Matter movement in 2020 this book adds to the current discussion on the idea of decolonizing Europe Drawing inspiration from the study of colonialism postcolonialism and the imperative to decolonize knowledge and practice the editors bring together a group of scholars approaching these issues through ethnographic inquiry The volume explores how race colonial legacies and structural inequality are addressed across diverse European contexts north central eastern and southern as well as in their entanglements with regions beyond Europe It offers critical grounded insights into the possibilities and challenges of decolonial thinking today

Multi-Dimensional Therapy with Families, Children and Adults Shlomo Ariel,2018-04-17 Multi Dimensional Therapy with Families Children and Adults The Diamond Model is a comprehensive introduction to a model of multi systemic integrative culturally competent child and family oriented psychotherapy The Diamond Model This model integrates a great number of concepts methods and techniques found in diverse fields such as the various branches of psychology and psychotherapy cultural anthropology biology linguistics and more into a single linguistically unified theoretical and methodological framework Through this model the author presents clinical cases to help explore various internal and external factors that lead individuals and families to seek out therapy The book also reserves a special place for examining play therapeutic and culturally competent techniques With vivid clinical examples throughout Multi Dimensional Therapy with Families Children and Adults serves both as a theory to practice guide and as a reference book for therapists working with children and families in training and practice

Context and Meaning in Cultural Anthropology Melford E. Spiro, Alfred Irving Hallowell, 1965 In honour of A Irving Hallowell Applying Cultural Anthropology Gary P. Ferraro, 1998 The reader offers a selection of 39 articles written in the words of those cultural anthropologists who are making their discipline useful Realizing that many other articles could have been included the categories and the articles contained with them are meant to be suggestive rather than exhaustive The reader can be used effectively as a supplement to any introductory textbook in cultural anthropology The readings would be appropriate for undergraduate level courses in applied anthropology The intent of this reader is twofold First it is to provide undergraduate anthropology students with a wide range of examples as to how the discipline is making meaningful contributions to the mitigation of human problems And second the editor hopes to convey through the words of the practicing anthropologists themselves some of the challenges and rewards involved in making cultural anthropology useful Pref
