This new edition reestablishes Craft Lessons as the crucial desert island book for harried writing teachers everywhere. Nonfiction Craft Lessons JoAnn Portalupi, Ralph Fletcher, 2023-10-10

Writing nonfiction represents a big step for most students yet when they try to create a report or persuasive essay they are often anxious and frustrated. JoAnn Portalupi and Ralph Fletcher created Nonfiction Craft Lessons Teaching Information Writing K 8 to help teachers bring the passion from student writing while helping students scaffold their ideas in this challenging genre. The authors divided this book into grade-specific sections for K 2, 3 4 and middle school grades 5 8 students. These divisions reflect various differences between emerging, competent and fluent writers. In each section you'll find a generous collection of craft lessons directed at the genre that's most appropriate for that particular age. In the K 2 section, for example, a number of craft lessons focus on the all-about or concept book. In the 3 4 section, there are several lessons on biography. In the 5 8 section, a series of lessons addresses expository writing. Throughout the book, each of the 80 lessons is presented on a single page in an easy-to-read format. Every lesson features three teaching guidelines: Discussion (A brief look at the reasons for teaching the particular element of craft specifically in a nonfiction context), How to Teach It (Concrete language showing exactly how a teacher might bring this craft element to students in writing conferences or a small group setting), Resource Material (Specific book or text referred to in the craft lesson, including trade books or a piece of student writing in the Appendixes). This book will help students breathe voice into lifeless dump-truck writing and improve their nonfiction writing by making it clearer, more authoritative and more organized. Nonfiction Craft Lessons gives teachers a wealth of practical strategies to help students grow into strong writers as they explore and explain the world around them. Craft Lessons
