The Chicago Guide for Freelance Editors Erin Brenner, 2024-05-08 The definitive guide to starting and running a freelance editing business You ve been thinking about shifting into the world of freelance editing but you don't know where to start. In a time when editors are seeking greater flexibility in their work arrangements and schedules, freelancing is an increasingly common career option. But deciding to go it alone means balancing the risks with the rewards. From the publisher of The Chicago Manual of Style comes The Chicago Guide for Freelance Editors, the definitive guide to running your business and finding greater control and freedom in your work life. In this book, Erin Brenner, an industry leader and expert on the business of editorial freelancing, gathers everything you need to know into a single resource. Brenner has run her own successful editing business for over two decades and has helped hundreds of editors launch or improve their businesses through her teaching, blog writing, and coaching. The Chicago Guide for Freelance Editors will walk you through the entire process of conceiving, launching, and working in a freelance editing business, from deciding on services and rates to choosing the best business structure to thinking through branding and marketing strategies and beyond. This book is ideal for beginning freelancers looking to get set up and land their first clients, but it's equally valuable to those who have already been freelancing, with detailed coverage of such issues as handling difficult clients and continuing professional development. You'll find a collection of advice from other successful freelance editors in this guide, as well as an extensive list of resources and tools. In the final and perhaps most important chapter, Brenner teaches you how to care for the key component of the business yourself: Artificial Intelligence in HCI. Helmut Degen, Stavroula Ntoa, 2024-05-31. The three-volume book set LNAI 14734, 14735, and 14736 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 5th International Conference on Artificial Intelligence in HCI (AI/HCI 2024), held as part of the 26th International Conference on HCI International 2024, which took place in Washington, DC, USA, during June 29–July 4, 2024. The total of 1271 papers and 309 posters included in the HCI 2024 proceedings was carefully reviewed and selected from 5108 submissions. The AI/HCI 2024 proceedings were organized in the following topical sections: Part I: Human-centered artificial intelligence, explainability and transparency, AI systems and frameworks in HCI; Part II: Ethical considerations and trust in AI, enhancing user experience through AI-driven technologies, AI in industry and operations; Part III: Large language models for enhanced interaction, advancing human-robot interaction through AI, AI applications for social impact and human wellbeing.
