home it has become more important than ever Although the popularity of wireless network and portable smart device makes it possible for people to acquire and learn knowledge anytime and anywhere it does not necessarily mean an increased learning performance Relevant research in cognitive science has revealed possible limitations in online learning For example the knowledge acquired through online learning tends to be fragmented and lacks guidance for integrated thinking among different subjects which makes it difficult for learners to form a systematic knowledge structure Learners may experience cognitive overload metacognitive illusion and low learning efficiency in self regulated learning It follows that in the post COVID 19 era online learning puts forward new requirements and challenges to the contemporary students not only to their learning strategies but positive character traits in learning Most of the current learning theories were developed in the early 20th century and may not fit in well with the current situation then possibly leading to inefficient learning and increased learning burden Therefore it is necessary and important to reexplore the influencing factors and mechanisms that affect the learning efficiency of students at all levels nowadays based on which we could construct a theoretical model of efficient learning model

Stories of Hope Sandra Abegglen, Tom Burns, Richard F. Heller, Rajan Madhok, Fabian Neuhaus, John Sandars, Sandra Sinfield, Upasana Gitanjali Singh, 2025-07-02 Higher education is in crisis Students are disengaged lecturers are burned out and universities seem more preoccupied with rankings and revenue than with knowledge and wellbeing But rather than dwell on the problems this book focuses on solutions on hope Bringing together a diverse range of educators and practitioners this collection showcases real world innovations that challenge the status quo and offer glimpses of a more humane and inspiring educational future From rethinking systems and curriculum design to fostering imaginative collaboration and exploring the role of technology the book highlights practical hopeful interventions that are already making a difference This is not a manifesto of complaints but an invitation to reimagine education The contributors offer fresh perspectives from around the world illustrating how small but meaningful changes can transform learning spaces empower educators and inspire students For academics teachers administrators and anyone invested in the future of education this book serves as both a source of inspiration and a call to action It is an evolving ecosystem of ideas grounded in practice rich with possibility and rooted in radical hope Now is the time to create the change we wish to see
