Documents Of Utopia The Politics Of Experimental Documentary Nonfictions:

Documents of Utopia Paolo Magagnoli, 2015-05-12 This timely volume discusses the experimental documentary projects of some of the most significant artists working in the world today Hito Steyerl Joachim Koester Tacita Dean Matthew Buckingham Zoe Leonard Jean Luc Moul ne Ilya and Emilia Kabakov Jon Thomson and Alison Craighead and Anri Sala Their films videos and photographic series address failed utopian experiments and counter hegemonic social practices This study illustrates the political significance of these artistic practices and critically contributes to the debate on the conditions of utopian thinking in late capitalist society arguing that contemporary artists interest in the past is the result of a shift within the temporal organization of the utopian imagination from its futuristic pole toward remembrance The book therefore provides one of the first critical examinations of the recent turn toward documentary in the field of contemporary art

New Nonfiction Film Dara Waldron, 2018-08-09 New Nonfiction Film Art Poetics and Documentary Theory is the first book to offer a lengthy examination of the relationship between fiction and documentary from the perspective of art and poetics The premise of the book is to propose a new category of nonfiction film that is distinguished from as opposed to being conflated with the documentary film in its multiple historical guises a premise explored in case studies of films by distinguished artists and filmmakers Abbas Kiarostami Ben Rivers Chantal Akerman Ben Russell Pat Collins and Gideon Koppel The book builds a case for this new category of film calling it the new nonfiction film and argues in the process that this kind of film works to dismantle the old distinctions between fiction and documentary film and therefore the axioms of Film and Cinema Studies as a discipline of study

Filming History from Below Efrén Cuevas, 2022-01-11 Traditional historical documentaries strive to project a sense of objectivity producing a top down view of history that focuses on public events and personalities In recent decades in line with historiographical trends advocating history from below a different type of historical documentary has emerged focusing on tightly circumscribed subjects personal archives and first person perspectives Efrén Cuevas categorizes these films as microhistorical documentaries and examines how they push cinema's capacity as a producer of historical knowledge in new directions Cuevas pinpoints the key features of these documentaries identifying their parallels with written microhistory a reduced scale of observation a central role given to human agency a conjectural approach to the use of archival sources and a reliance on narrative structures Microhistorical documentaries also use tools specific to film to underscore the affective dimension of historical narratives often incorporating autobiographical and essayistic perspectives and highlighting the role of the protagonists personal memories in the reconstruction of the past These films generally draw from family archives with an emphasis on snapshots and home movies Filming History from Below examines works including Peter Forgács's films dealing with the Holocaust such as The Maelstrom and Free Fall documentaries about the Israeli Palestinian conflict Rithy Panh's work on the Cambodian genocide films about the internment of Japanese Americans during the Second World War such as A Family Gathering and History and Memory and

Jonas Mekas's chronicle of migration in his diary film Lost Lost Lost I-Docs Judith Aston, Sandra Gaudenzi, Mandy Rose, 2017-02-28 The history of documentary has been one of adaptation and change as documentarists have harnessed the affordances of emerging technology In the last decade interactive documentaries i docs have become established as a new field of practice within non fiction storytelling Their various incarnations are now a focus at leading film festivals IDFA DocLab Tribeca Storyscapes Sheffield DocFest major international awards have been won and they are increasingly the subject of academic study This anthology looks at the creative practices purposes and ethics that lie behind these emergent forms Expert contributions case studies and interviews with major figures in the field address the production processes that lie behind interactive documentary as well as the political cultural and geographic contexts in which they are emerging and the media ecology that supports them Taking a broad view of interactive documentary as any work which engages with the real by employing digital interactive technology this volume addresses a range of platforms and environments from web docs and virtual reality to mobile media and live performance It thus explores the challenges that face interactive documentary practitioners and scholars and proposes new ways of producing and engaging with interactive factual content

Documenting Cityscapes Iván Villarrea Álvarez, 2015-05-12 While film studies has traditionally treated the presence of the city in film as an urban text operating inside of a cinematic one this approach has recently evolved into the study of cinema as a technology of place From this perspective Documenting Cityscapes explores the way the city has been depicted by nonfiction filmmakers since the late 1970s paying particular attention to three aesthetic tendencies documentary landscaping urban self portraits and metafilmic strategies Through the formal analysis of fifteen works from six different countries this volume investigates how the rise of subjectivity has helped to develop a kind of gaze that is closer to citizens than to the institutions and corporations responsible for recent major transformations Documenting Cityscapes therefore reveals the extent to which cinema has become an agent of urban change in which certain films not only challenge the most controversial policies of late capitalism but also are able to produce spatiality themselves Perpetrator Cinema Raya Morag, 2020-03-17 Perpetrator Cinema explores a new trend in the cinematic depiction of genocide that has emerged in Cambodian documentary in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries While past films documenting the Holocaust and genocides in Yugoslavia Rwanda and elsewhere have focused on collecting and foregrounding the testimony of survivors and victims the intimate horror of the autogenocide enables post Khmer Rouge Cambodian documentarians to propose a direct confrontation between the first generation survivor and the perpetrator of genocide These films break with Western tradition and disrupt the political view that reconciliation is the only legitimate response to atrocities of the past Rather transcending the perpetrator's typical denial or partial confession this extraordinary form of duel documentary creates confrontational tension and opens up the possibility of a transformation in power relations allowing viewers to access feelings of moral resentment Raya Morag examines works by Rithy Panh Rob Lemkin and Thet Sambath and Lida Chan and Guillaume

Suon among others to uncover the ways in which filmmakers endeavor to allow the survivors moral status and courage to guide viewers to a new more complete understanding of the processes of coming to terms with the past These documentaries show how moral resentment becomes a way to experience symbolize judge and finally incorporate evil into a system of ethics Morag s analysis reveals how perpetrator cinema provides new epistemic tools and propels the recent social cultural psychological shift from the era of the witness to the era of the perpetrator

Utopias in Nonfiction Film Simon Spiegel,2022 Comprehensive and thorough Utopias in Nonfiction Film takes a new direction in its surprise application to documentary that has the potential to shake up the field Jane Gaines Columbia University USA Spiegel has introduced a new sub genre to utopian studies the documentary film The book covers an impressive range of films making the book one of the few truly international and comparative works in utopian studies Lyman Tower Sargent University of Missouri St Louis USA This book is the first major study on utopias in nonfiction film Since the publication of Thomas Mores Utopia more than 500 years ago countless books have been written which describe a better world But in film positive utopias seem to be nonexistent So far research has focused almost exclusively on dystopias since positive outlooks seem to run contrary to the medias requirement Utopias in Nonfiction Film takes a new approach starting from the insight that literary utopias are first and foremost meant as a reaction to the ills of the present and not as entertaining stories it looks at documentary and propaganda films an area which so far has been completely ignored by research Combining insights from documentary research and utopian studies a vast and very diverse corpus of films is analysed Among them are Zionist propaganda films cinematic city utopias socialist films of the future as well as web videos produced by the Islamist terrorist group ISIS
