Robillard, Ron Fortune, 2015-06-12 This volume explores a dimension of authorship not given its due in the critical discourse to this point authorship contested Much of the existing critical literature begins with a text and the proposition that the text has an author The debates move from here to questions about who the author is whether or not the author's identity is even relevant and what relationship she or he does and does not have to the text The authors contributing to this collection however ask about circumstances surrounding efforts to prevent authors from even being allowed to have these questions asked of them from even being identified as authors They ask about the political cultural economic and social circumstances that motivate a prospective audience to resist an author's efforts to have a text published read and discussed Particularly noteworthy is the range of everyday rhetorical situations in which contesting authorship occurs from the production of a corporate document to the publication of fan fiction Each chapter also focuses on particular instances in which authorship has been contested demonstrating how theories about various forms of contested authorship play out in a range of events from the complex issues surrounding peer review to authorship in the age of intelligent machines Inner Fortress Conrad Riker, 101-01-01 Tired of Being Shamed for Your Strength Reclaim the Sacred Power of Masculinity Why does society demonize the very traits that protect families How do you lead with conviction when culture calls your purpose toxic Are you exhausted by being told vulnerability is strength only to be despised for showing it Exposes the double bind of modern misandry punished for masculinity AND weakness Revives God's design men as leaders women as helpers not competitors Trains you to spot cultural Marxism poisoning faith family and brotherhood Replaces victimhood with dominion through scripture discipline and action Reveals why gender equality destroys society's foundation Builds unshakeable resilience
