

NEWS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

Learning changed dramatically because of Covid-19

Many teachers in the past have used the traditional method of teaching, which is to stand at the front of the class and deliver a lecture. However, with the advent of technology, teachers can now use a variety of tools to deliver their lessons. This has led to a more interactive and engaging learning experience for students.

Education without borders

Education is a fundamental right for all children, regardless of their background or location. However, many children around the world do not have access to quality education. This is often due to a lack of resources, such as schools and teachers. Organizations are working to provide education to these children, so that they can have a better future.
