by enabling natural language code generation intelligent debugging and interactive project based learning Bridging the gap between theoretical instruction and practical application the book serves as both a guide and a critical framework for integrating generative AI into curricula It highlights how these tools expand the boundaries of programming education by supporting interdisciplinary applications from literary analysis to creative writing thereby making coding relevant and actionable for students in the humanities and beyond The book equips educators with the tools and strategies necessary to incorporate AI assisted programming into diverse academic contexts by offering lesson plans and adaptable project models This resource is essential for instructors seeking to demystify coding promote inclusivity in technical learning and reimagine the role of software literacy in the twenty first century classroom

Professional Communication and Network

Interaction Heidi A. McKee, James E. Porter, 2017-06-14 Digital technologies and social media have changed the processes products and interactions of professional communication reshaping how when with whom and where business professionals communicate This book examines these changes by asking How does rhetorical theory need to adapt and develop to address the changing practices of professional communication Drawing from classical and contemporary rhetorical theory and from in depth interviews with business professionals the authors present a case based approach for exploring the changing landscape of professional communication The book develops a rhetorical theory based on networked interaction and rhetorical ethics seeing professional communication as involving new kinds of networked interactions that require an integrated view of rhetoric and ethics The book applies this frame to a variety of communication cases involving for example employee missteps on social media corporate consumer interactions and the developing use of artificial intelligence agents AI bots to handle online communication
