Real Life Ai Podcast Editor For Teens:

The Actual Jesus Tina Pippin, 2025-07-29 This book moves away from the traditional historical and theological studies of Jesus to incorporate a variety of theoretical and material approaches across centuries and diverse global cultures Through fiction and film the connections are made with contemporary issues such as borders asylum seekers farmworker activism colonialism violence misogyny civil war and nuclear proliferation with a focus on the appearances of the actual Jesus in these worlds The Jesus in this study is explored in particular connections with the stories of baptism wilderness experience ascension and apocalypse What is found is often confusing challenging surprising and disturbing like the Jesus of the gospels

Diversifying the Space of Podcasting Tegan R. Bratcher, Alexis Romero Walker, 2024-12-15 As the podcast studies field continues to gain momentum both within academia and in practice scholars have been mapping and exploring the podcasting landscape from a variety of perspectives This edited volume highlights the diverse spaces that podcasts embody and create amplifying the unique and understudied perspectives and voices of podcasting Through a multitude of interdisciplinary approaches contributors explore the various cultural racial and identity based markers undergirding the richness of the platform and argue that by understanding diverse content and content creators we enrich the field of podcast studies as a whole Scholars of media communication cultural podcast and critical race studies among others will find this book to be particularly useful

The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction Mark Bould, Andrew M. Butler, Sherryl Vint, 2024-06-13 The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction provides an overview of the study of science fiction across multiple academic fields It offers a new conceptualisation of the field today marking the significant changes that have taken place in sf studies over the past 15 years Building on the pioneering research in the first edition the collection reorganises historical coverage of the genre to emphasise new geographical areas of cultural production and the growing importance of media beyond print It also updates and expands the range of frameworks that are relevant to the study of science fiction The periodisation has been reframed to include new chapters focusing on science fiction produced outside the Anglophone context including South Asian Latin American Chinese and African diasporic science fiction The contributors use both well established critical and theoretical approaches and embrace a range of new ones including biopolitics climate crisis critical ethnic studies disability studies energy humanities game studies medical humanities new materialisms and sonic studies This book is an invaluable resource for students and established scholars seeking to understand the vast range of engagements with science fiction in scholarship today Chapter 39 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
