Generative AI in African News Media Trust Matsilele, Lungile A. Tshuma, 2025-12-16 This pioneering volume presents a comprehensive assessment of generative artificial intelligence's impact on African journalism bringing together insights from academics, technologists and practicing journalists across the continent. Featuring diverse case studies from South Africa, Nigeria, Kenya, Zimbabwe, Zambia and Eswatini, the collection explores how African newsrooms are adopting generative AI. Contributors analyse the use of AI, presenters' audience perceptions of AI-generated content, gamification strategies in newsrooms and the barriers journalists face in accessing these technologies. Painting a picture of the complex political economy of AI-driven news production and consumption, the volume also addresses ethical concerns around AI appropriation, highlighting how existing legal frameworks struggle to regulate generative AI in journalism. Positioned at the intersection of technology and African media studies, this book offers essential insights into the future of journalism across the continent. Trust Matsilele is a Senior Lecturer in Journalism at Birmingham City University, UK, and a Research Fellow in the Communication Department at the University of South Africa. Lungile A. Tshuma is a Researcher in the Centre for Communication and Culture, Universidade Católica Portuguesa. Tshuma is also a Senior Research Associate in the Department of Communication and Media, University of Johannesburg, South Africa. The Reader's Adviser, 1986

Blockchain, Artificial Intelligence, and Financial Services Sean Stein Smith, 2024-12-04. Blockchain, cryptoassets and artificial intelligence protocols continue to change the roles of accounting and financial service professionals at a fundamental level. This book examines the impact and influence of these technologies in the financial sector. In particular, this second revised edition examines the impact of these technologies on megatrends such as ESG reporting, remote workforces, real-time reporting and a shift to a virtual and digital world. It also provides insights on how automation of all kinds highlighted by AI are changing the ways in which financial transactions and other information are handled by accounting and finance professionals. Ranging from the implications of blockchains among various organizations to the rise of cryptoassets for transactions and investing activities, the author provides grounded and action-oriented recommendations for financial practitioners. Written in an accessible conversational style that is unbiased and objective and replaces jargon and technical details with real-world case examples and end-of-chapter reflection questions, this book presents professionals as well as students, scholars and policy makers with the knowledge and action plans to integrate these ideas and tools into practice within accounting and finance organizations.
