Re-thinking Mediations of Post-truth Politics and Trust Jayson Harsin, 2023-12-29 This collection reaches beyond fake news and propaganda misinformation and charismatic liars to explore the lesser publicized cultural forms and practices that serve as a cultural infrastructure for post truth society and politics Situating post truth in specific contexts as a site of contestation or crisis the book critically explores it as a dynamic and shifting site around which political and cultural practices in specific contexts revolve and overlap Through a breadth of perspectives the volume considers a number of overlapping cultural and political developments across varying national and transnational contexts changing technologies and practices of cultural production that sometimes shift and at other times reproduce authority of traditional institutional truth tellers seismic cultural changes in representations values and roles regarding gender sexuality race and historical memory about them as well as corresponding reactionary discourses in the culture wars questions of authenticity honesty and power relations that combine many of the former shifts within an all encompassing culture of self promotional attentional capitalism These considerations lead scholars to focus on corresponding shifting cultural dynamics of popular truth telling and dis trust making that inform political culture In this more global view post truth becomes foremost an influentially anxious public mood about the struggles to secure or undermine publicly accepted facts This nuanced and insightful collection will interest scholars and students of communication studies media and cultural studies media ethics journalism media literacy sociology anthropology philosophy and politics

The Women of the Far Right Eviane Leidig, 2023-09-19 On mainstream social media platforms far right women make extremism relatable They share Instagram stories about organic foods that help pregnant women propagate the pure white race and post behind the scenes selfies at antivaccination rallies These social media personalities model a feminine lifestyle at once promoting their personal brands and radicalizing their followers Amid discussions of issues like dating marriage and family life they call on women to become housewives to counteract the corrosive effects of feminism and champion the Great Replacement conspiracy theory which motivated massacres in Christchurch El Paso and Buffalo Eviane Leidig offers an in depth look into the world of far right women influencers exploring the digital lives they cultivate as they seek new recruits for white nationalism Going beyond stereotypes of the typical male white supremacist she uncovers how young attractive women are playing key roles as propagandists organizers fundraisers and entrepreneurs Leidig argues that far right women are marketing themselves as authentic and accessible in order to reach new followers and spread a hateful ideology This insidious and highly gendered strategy takes advantage of the structure of social media platforms where far right women influencers content is shared with and promoted to mainstream audiences Providing much needed expertise on gender and the far right this timely and accessible book also details online and offline approaches to countering extremism The Routledge Companion to Jane Austen Cheryl A. Introducing Sociology Using the Stuff of Everyday Life

 Josee Johnston, Kate Cairns, Shyon Baumann, 2017-01-06 The challenges of teaching a successful introductory sociology course today demand materials from a publisher very different from the norm Texts that are organized the way the discipline structures itself intellectually no longer connect with the majority of student learners This is not an issue of pandering to students or otherwise seeking the lowest common denominator On the contrary it is a question of again making the practice of sociological thinking meaningful rigorous and relevant to today s world of undergraduates This comparatively concise highly visual and affordable book offers a refreshingly new way forward to reach students using one of the most powerful tools in a sociologist s teaching arsenal the familiar stuff in students everyday lives throughout the world the jeans they wear to class the coffee they drink each morning or the phones their professors tell them to put away during lectures A focus on consumer culture seeing the strange in the familiar is not only interesting for students it is also the authors suggest pedagogically superior to more traditional approaches By engaging students through their stuff this book moves beyond teaching about sociology to helping instructors teach the practice of sociological thinking It moves beyond describing what sociology is so that students can practice what sociological thinking can do This pedagogy also posits a relationship between teacher and learner that is bi directional Many students feel a sense of authority in various areas of consumer culture and they often enjoy sharing their knowledge with fellow students and with their instructor Opening up the sociology classroom to discussion of these topics validates students expertise on their own life worlds Teachers in turn gain insight from the goods services and cultural expectations that shape students lives While innovative the book has been carefully crafted to make it as useful and flexible as possible for instructors aiming to build core sociological foundations in a single semester A map on pages ii iii identifies core sociological concepts covered so that a traditional syllabus as well as individual lectures can easily be maintained Theory method and active learning exercises in every chapter constantly encourage the sociological imagination as well as the doing of sociology
