Comparative Research on Diversity in Virtual Learning: Eastern vs. Western Perspectives Khlaif, Zuheir, Sanmugam, Mageswaran, Itmazi, Jamil, 2023-03-20 In today's modern world it is crucial to ensure diversity and inclusion are present in all forms of education This can be particularly difficult to achieve in virtual learning environments as educators and students adjust to this new way of teaching and learning Further study on how schools and institutions across the globe are promoting diversity in online environments is necessary to discover the best practices and ensure education as a whole remains inclusive Comparative Research on Diversity in Virtual Learning Eastern vs Western Perspectives collects lived experiences of stakeholders from different countries regarding their experiences with teaching in diverse virtual learning environments The book identifies characteristics of diversity in virtual online learning and explores the best practices of teaching and learning in said environments Importantly the reference covers experiences from both Eastern and Western countries and compares the challenges and opportunities afforded to both Covering topics such as student engagement computational thinking and diverse environments this reference work is ideal for teachers administrators policymakers researchers academicians scholars practitioners instructors and students Resources in Education ,1984 Edutech Enabled

Teaching Manpreet Singh Manna, Balamurugan Balusamy, Kiran Sood, Naveen Chilamkurti, Ignisha Rajathi George, 2022-09-02

The primary goal of this book is to address the issues faced by teachers in the adoption of digital tools into their teaching and their students learning. This book also addresses the issues confronting educators in the integration of digital technologies into their teaching and their students learning. Such issues include a skepticism of the added value of technology to educational learning outcomes, the perception of the requirement to keep up with the fast pace of technological innovation, a lack of knowledge of affordable educational digital tools, and a lack of understanding of pedagogical strategies to embrace digital technologies in their teaching. This book presents theoretical perspectives of learning and teaching today's digital students with technology and proposes a pragmatic and sustainable framework for teachers' professional learning to embed digital technologies into their repertoire of teaching strategies in a systematic, coherent, and comfortable manner so that technology integration becomes an almost effortless pedagogy in their day-to-day teaching. Some of the objectives are given below: Shares valuable insights into the influence of technology on teaching and learning in higher education; Provides deeper insights on higher education and sustainability; Interacts; Studies innovations from various perspectives; Investigates how the educators and students apply the unique innovative and emotional dimensions in the modern age of learning; Provides a timely overview of changes in education reforms and policy research globally; Evaluates the problematic relationship between globalization, the state, and education reforms. Computer & Control Abstracts, 1996 Technology-mediated Learning During the Pandemic

Jitendra Singh, Vikas Kumar, 2024-06-21. This volume discusses the emergence of information and communication technology (ICT)-based teaching and learning during the Covid-19 pandemic as a potential alternative to traditional classroom-based learning. It presents a collection of theories, practices, and case studies from across the globe and covers different aspects of education from a multidisciplinary perspective. While focusing on the various opportunities that surfaced while carrying out innovative experiments in the online learning space, the book discusses pedagogical challenges and the need for a shift in teaching pedagogy towards online learning. It outlines the existing learning theories, reasons behind their failure, and new theories that emerged to fill the need for new methods for delivery of content and pedagogy. The book discusses the issues faced by stakeholders including institute administrators, students, and teachers to prepare for this new method of teaching and learning. It highlights the role of virtual laboratories in supplementing the needs of students in the remote learning environment. The book also discusses the role and impact of social media as a powerful tool of learning and educational communication. This book will be of interest to teachers, students, and researchers of education, higher education, digital education, information technology, educational psychology, and media studies. It will also be useful for courses on e-learning, educationalists, policymakers, educational institutions, online education centres, and practitioners working in the related areas. Normal Instructor and Teachers World, 1908 Resources in Education, 1997
