Morris Goodman, Joel Yanofsky

No Bs Remote Jobs Usa Ideas For Dads:

Indianapolis Monthly, 2004-06 Indianapolis Monthly is the Circle City's essential chronicle and guide, an indispensable authority on what's new and what's news. Through coverage of politics, crime, dining, style, business, sports, and arts and entertainment, each issue offers compelling narrative stories and lively, urbane coverage of Indy's cultural landscape. To Make a Difference Morris Goodman, Joel Yanofsky, 2014-04-01 What goes into making a life successful and what does success mean? If you think about a life as a chemical equation, then the elements are obvious: family, work, purpose. The key is discovering how to get the balance just right. In To Make a Difference, Montreal entrepreneur and philanthropist Morris Goodman shares his personal and professional prescription for success and enduring happiness. Born in 1931 in Montreal to Ukrainian immigrants during the worst days of the Great Depression, Goodman recounts the events, strategies, and lucky breaks that led to a thriving company and a life of philanthropic accomplishments. From his first job as a pharmacy delivery boy to his graduation from the University of Montreal's Faculty of Pharmacy when he had already started his own pharmaceutical company, through the crucial moments that created an international business, Goodman depicts stirring accounts of Montreal's Jewish community and the development of the global pharmaceutical industry. Along the way, he presents vivid, generous portraits of colleagues and business collaborators. To Make a Difference is a powerful rags-to-riches story, but it is also much more: it is a heartfelt, candid, and inspiring exploration of what makes our lives rich, what we value, and why. A World of Many Norbert Ross, 2023-01-13 A World of Many explores the world-making efforts of Tzotzil Maya children from two different localities within the municipality of Chenalhó, Chiapas. The research demonstrates children's agency in creating their worlds while also investigating the role played by the surrounding social and physical environment. Different experiences with schooling, parenting goals and values, but also with climate change, water scarcity, as well as racism and settler colonialism, form part of the reason children create their emerging worlds. These worlds are not made to believe or anything less than the ontological products of their parents. Instead, Norbert Ross argues that by creating different worlds, the children ultimately fashion themselves into different human beings, quite literally being different in the world. A World of Many combines experimental research from the cognitive sciences with critical theory, exploring children's agency in devising their own ontologies. Rather than treating children as somewhat incomplete humans, it understands children as tinkerers and thinkers, makers of their worlds amidst complex relations. It regards being as a constant ontological production where life and living constitutes activism. Using experimental paradigms, the book shows that children locate themselves differently in these emerging worlds; they create becoming different human beings in the process. Son of a Midnight Land Atz Kilcher, 2018-02-06 A powerful new memoir about growing up with a hard father in a hard land. Atz Kilcher learned many vital skills while helping his parents carve a homestead out of the Alaskan wilderness: how to work hard, think on his feet, make do, invent, and use what was on hand to accomplish whatever task was in front of him. He also learned how to lie in order to please his often volatile father and put himself in harm's way to protect his mother and younger weaker members of the family. Much later in life as Atz began to reflect on his upbringing, seek to understand his father and heal his emotional scars, he discovered that the work of pioneering the frontier of the soul is an infinitely more difficult task than any of the back-breaking chores he performed on his family's homestead. Learning to use new tools, honesty, vulnerability, forgiveness, acceptance, and building upon the good helped him heal and learn to embrace the value of resilience. This revised perspective has enabled him to tell an enhanced and more positive version of the legacy his father created and has him doing the most rewarding work of his life: mapping his own inner wilderness while drawing closer to his adult children, the next stewards of the land he helped his father carve out of the Alaskan frontier.
