neoliberal world through the prism of rents and rentiers How can we reduce inequalities How can we make work get better recognition and better pay Philippe Askenazy in this new book shows that the current share of wealth is far from natural it results from rising rents and their capture by the actors best endowed in the economic game In this race for rents the world of work is the big loser while many workers feed capital rents by increased productivity and worsened working conditions they are stigmatized as unproductive and their earnings stagnate By proposing a new description of the capital work relationship calling for a remobilization of the world of work and particularly poorly paid employees Askenazy shows that there is a more radical alternative to neoliberalism beyond simply redistribution Chamber of Commerce Journal of
