

Create Email Signup Opportunities At The End Of Your Content

Your visitors to your post will not read the full post.

If they do make it to the end of your post, they want more. Don't waste this opportunity.

→ Make sure you include a signup opportunity at the end of every post.

The more difficult way is to make a different Lead Magnet for every single one of your posts. This is called a "Content Upgrade", and it gets better results because it is directly related to what your visitors were just reading about.

- ☐ Include a simple signup form at the end of every post in the theme of your blog or website
- ☐ Consider including a content upgrade in every post you publish—like the guide you're reading right now. :)
- ☐ If you can't include a content upgrade specifically for every post, try a content bundle of several of the most relevant Lead Magnets you've created to encourage signups

Step #3: Implement Email Marketing Within Your Content Strategy

Your overall content strategy should be targeting your desired audience via recurring, well-promoted content that gets added to your website and into positions for email capture.

The goal of any content marketing campaign is twofold:

1. Build an audience of people interested in your chosen topic.
2. Build trust within that audience and an expectation of quality from your brand.

Anytime you publish a new post, send out the following email:

1. Subject Line: "Compelling headline meant to grab maximum email opens"
2. Header image taken from published post
3. Short introduction setting up a hook to get people to your post
4. Link to your post
5. Buttons to click for instant shares

1. Publish your blog between 12pm and 5pm ET. The easiest way to do this is to schedule it through CoSchedule.

2. Schedule an email to go out the day your post goes live.

3. Promote your content across social channels with CoSchedule.

Now it's time to actually make some cash from your email list.

Here are 2 monetization strategies:

1. Monetization Strategy: Sell Affiliate Offers To Your Email List

Pick a subscription-based service that meets the following criteria:

- You already love it
- It's a no-brainer for your customers
- It is intended to be used indefinitely

Be sure to:

- Put a referral link into your next email and talk it up big to your email subscribers
- Create a targeted landing page on your website pitching to your visitors

2. Monetization Strategy: Sell Ad Placements On Your "Newsletter"

Be sure that your "newsletter" isn't a traditional tacky newsletter; you have to do something different.
