Critical Literacy in an AI World Kathy A. Mills, Amanda Gutierrez, 2025-12-18 Critical Literacy in an AI World is an innovative book that uses critical literary perspectives to examine generative AI. It provides thought provoking insights into advancements in artificial intelligence which are increasingly entangled in human decision making across all spheres of society profoundly reshaping literacy and media practices. Mills and Gutierrez analyse how these transformations affect and are affected by the evolving nature of human knowledge, consciousness, creativity, emotion, ethics and aesthetics. They highlight the importance of critical literacy for understanding and even reclaiming the power dynamics operating in the social construction of the human experience within AI driven texts and technologies. This book encourages readers to critically navigate computational algorithms and agents that mediate digital social practices and daily life. Blending theoretical frameworks and practical applications, it advances students' critical AI based digital reading and authoring skills as well as teachers' capabilities to use critical pedagogies, curricula and assessment for reflective AI text environments. Critical Literacy in an AI World is essential reading for students and researchers in literacy and educational technology.

Communication in a Civil Society Shelley D. Lane, Ruth Anna Abigail, John Casey Gooch, 2024-03-06 Using the concept of civility as the major theme, this fully updated second edition offers a unique and alternative way to teach and learn about communication. The book brings together discrete areas that explore the fundamentals of communication and intrapersonal communication, interpersonal communication, small group communication and public speaking. Every chapter includes theories, concepts and examples that allow students to use civil and ethical communication skills in their personal relationships, in collaboration with colleagues and in giving public speeches and professional presentations. This new edition highlights advances in and concepts related to mediated and technology based communication such as chatbots, technostress and dating apps and shows how students can engage in civil face to face and mediated interaction. Additionally, each chapter includes a real world incident that students are asked to analyze in terms of specific chapter information and skills related to civility. Communication in a Civil Society is an ideal textbook for Introduction to Communication, Interpersonal Communication and Public Speaking courses.
