Transforming Asian Economy and Business

Administration Katsuhiko Hirasawa,Tsuyako Nakamura,Yutaka Takakubo,2022-05-19 Are there any countries now days that do not use products and parts made in Asia In this sense Asia is a production base that supports the world economy The entry of multinational corporations into Asian countries has been carried out from early on But it was the collapse of the socialist planned economy that clinched the expansion of MNEs into Asia The collapse of the socialist planned economy was accompanied by the introduction of the market economy in the countries with the socialist planned economy The ideology of neo liberalism with emphasis on the market economy became the principle for the reconstruction of these countries Against the backdrop of this global standard the activities of MNEs in Asian countries have advanced Accompanying this the construction of an economic structure based on the MNEs has progressed there This is the emergence of so called Asian capitalism However the spread of COVID 19 and its countermeasures appear to be transforming this global order As is well known the spread of COVID 19 and its countermeasures are suppressing international human exchanges and logistics advanced by globalization and promoting the restructuring of local economies In this context the way of business activities in Asian countries probably defines the future world order Based on this awareness of the issues this book deals with various problems of the economy and business management especially human resources in Asian countries The UGC and the Management of British Universities Michael Shattock,1994 Higher Education in India Vā. Ce Kulantaicāmi,2003 India has one of the largest systems of higher education in the world Since independence it has enormously expanded in terms of quantity and diversity of fields of knowledge However it has remained relatively unchanged insofar as the structure the system of management and even functional objectives are concerned This book brings together critical perspectives on and valuable insight into several issues concerning tertiary education that have not been examined so closely and comprehensively Prof V C Kulandai Swamy addresses some of the issues ranging from the macro management of institutions He argues in his wide ranging reflections over a period of almost two decades that our higher education system is in need of far reaching changes The chapter in this book look at key issues concerning Systemic Changes Curriculum Changes Autonomy and decentralization Academic leadership the vice chancellor the faculty Consumer demand privatization
