My City Links: September 2023 Issue My City Links, 2023-09-01. Ask anyone who they look up to and give credit to for being the person that they have become. Chances are that a teacher will be on their list, along with parents, family members, and close friends. To mark Teacher's Day, our Cover Story for this edition pays tribute to the role that teachers play in our lives. Anybody who was around in the 80s would remember the pulsating beats and the psychedelic lights that were synonymous with a new form of music that held the world in thrall. A special feature in City Tales revisits the birth of Disco music, its impact on the Bollywood film industry, and its eventual decline of sorts. With the growing realisation that Artificial Intelligence (AI) is here to stay, discussions these days often veer around to the influence this latest revolution in technology can have on different human endeavours. In City Tech, we take a look at some of the latest AI tools that can be used for a variety of functions. As it happens, advances in technology invariably come with their own unique challenges. Preventing cybercrime and identifying the perpetrators is one such challenge for law enforcement agencies these days, and official data on the nature and number of such incidents presents a grim picture. Twin City police chief Soumendra Priyadarshi discusses the challenges in City Beat. The section also looks at diseases like dengue that make an appearance during the monsoon season. We speak with health and municipal officials to bring you a ground report. In Screen Shots, we catch up with the newest star on the block who is creating quite the buzz on the OTT circuit these days Life has not been the same for actor Prem Parija who had earlier worked as an assistant director for Bollywood films since he was signed up to play the lead role in the Commando series The section also features Odia film producer Sanjay Nayak and filmmaker NG Reddy During the course of a freewheeling chat they discuss the current state of the Ollywood film industry and what needs to be done to draw the audience back to the movie theatres This edition explores the interesting 200 year old Urdu poetry tradition of Mushaira in the city of Cuttack City Culture and the inspiring story of an 18 year old entrepreneur who is rewriting the rules of success City Biz
