Aurini, Melanie Heath, Stephanie Howells, 2016-05-21 With clear instructions for developing a research design and complementary research tools this book is not about describing or theorizing qualitative methods but how researchers actually create and execute these methods Helping students conquer the practical issues many novice researchers face the book provides them with the tools they need to answer critical questions such as what are some ways to sample potential participants how do I construct an interview schedule should I be thinking of a single case study or a comparative study what and how should I record in the field what other sources of data should I consider      The Politics of Nuclear Non-Proliferation Ursula Jasper, 2013-10-08 This book examines the puzzle of why some states acquire nuclear weapons whereas others refrain from trying to do so or even renounce them Based on the predominant theoretical thinking in International Relations it is often assumed that nuclear proliferation is inevitable given the anarchic nature of the international system Proliferation is thus often explained by vague references to states insecurity in an anarchic environment Yet elusive generalisations and grand abstract theories inhibit a more profound and detailed knowledge of the very political processes that lead towards nuclearisation or its reversal Drawing upon the philosophical and social theoretical insights of American pragmatism The Politics of Nuclear Non Proliferation provides a theoretically innovative and practically useful framework for the analysis of states nuclear proliferation policies Rather than recounting a parsimonious lean account of proliferation the framework allows for the incorporation of multiple paradigms in order to depict the complex political contestation underlying states proliferation decisions This pragmatist framework of analysis offers ways of overcoming long standing metatheoretical gridlocks in the IR discipline and encourages scholars to reorient their efforts towards imminent real world challenges This book will be of much interest to students of nuclear proliferation international security and IR theory      A Complementary Approach to the Interpretation and Translation of Biblical Metaphors Peter Kamande Thuo, 2021-01-31 In this in depth study Peter Kamande

Thuo explores the complexity of accurately understanding interpreting and translating Scripture especially biblical metaphors Engaging the need for a stronger theoretical framework for conceptualizing and communicating metaphors across languages Dr Thuo proposes a complementary approach that utilizes relevance theory to bridge gaps presented by conceptual metaphor theory and cognitive linguistics Yet this book is far more than an abstract theoretical treatise Dr Thuo offers the example of the circumcised heart of Romans 2 as a case study providing practical guidance for his readers as he demonstrates the process of translating such a phrase into Kikuyu So doing he reminds us that the challenge of understanding interpreting and applying biblical metaphors across culture and language is not limited to the work of professional translation Rather it is at the heart of all scholarship discipleship and pastoral teaching and the task of every person engaged in reading the word of God      African Traditions Meeting Islam Lawrence Odhiambo Oseje, 2018-12-31 In many communities across the world traditional beliefs and practices are passed down generations and are a feature of day to day life despite the influence of outside sources Focusing on Luo Muslims in Kenya Dr Lawrence Oseje looks at the interaction of Islam and traditional Luo practices especially those around death and burial Dr Oseje s research with Luo Muslims in Kendu Bay investigates the impact of the traditional Luo conceptualization of death with their current views and provides new understanding of fundamental issues that affect the lives of ordinary Muslims From his observation of this community Oseje encourages a celebration of traditions and customs showing that an appreciation of traditions and beliefs can help develop ministry to local communities Dr Oseje s findings result in a deepened understanding of cultures how they develop from a blend of influences and provides anthropological and missiological guidelines for cross cultural ministry particularly in times of bereavement      Crisis in the American Heartland George W. Doherty, 2011-03-01 Who will step up to meet the challenge of the next rural crisis Rural practice presents important yet challenging issues for psychology especially given uneven population distribution high levels of need limited availability of rural services and ongoing migration to urban centers It is critical that mental health professionals and first responders in rural areas become aware of recent research training and approaches to crisis intervention traumatology compassion fatigue disaster mental health critical incident stress management post traumatic stress and related areas in rural environments Critical issues facing rural areas include Physical issues such as land air and water resources cheap food policy chemicals and pesticides animal rights corruption in food marketing and distribution and land appropriation for energy development Quality of life issues such as rural America s declining share of national wealth problems of hunger education and rural poverty among rural populations of farmers and ranchers Direct service issues include the need to accommodate a wide variety of mental health difficulties client privacy and boundaries and practical challenges Indirect service issues include the greater need for diverse professional activities collaborativework with professionals having different orientations and beliefs program development and evaluation and conducting research with few mentors or peer collaborators Professional training and development issues include lack of specialized relevant courses and placements Personal issues include limited opportunities for recreation culture and lack of privacy Doherty's first volume in this new series Crisis in the American Heartland explores these and many other issues Social Science Disasters Disaster Relief For more information please visit www.RMRIInstitute.org Research Methods in Jindra, 2014-02-06 Based on the analysis of 52 conversion narratives to various religious groups A New Model of Religious Conversion utilizes case studies for comparison of converts backgrounds network influence and conversion narratives The author convincingly illustrates a fit between the converts background and the religion they convert to such as between disorganized family backgrounds and highly structured religions Conversely those from highly structured backgrounds often convert to more open groups The book also makes it clear that not all conversions are influenced by networks or align themselves with a social constructivist view of a conversion as an account Taking converts trajectories seriously the author makes a strong case for the application of biographical sociology to the study of conversion and American sociology overall     Basics of Qualitative Research Anselm Strauss, Juliet M. Corbin, 1990-09 A presentation of the procedures and techniques of grounded theory studies It provides a step by step approach to research from formulation of the initial research question to the process of writing or speaking on the research topic     American Book Publishing Record , 1999     Basics of Qualitative Research Juliet M.
