Zohrab, 2002 Feminist Alliances Lynda Burns, 2006 Focus on the prospects for alliance between feminism and other political positions Contributions are The Complexities of Coalition Whose Politics Who's Correct Speaking of Feminism What Are We Arguing About The Purposes of Politics A Feminist Inquiry Foucault Feminism and History Emasculating Metaphor Whither the Maleness of Reason Care Ethics Power and Feminist Socioanalysis Pornography and Power Splitting the Difference Between Young and Fraser on Identity Politics An Introduction to Sociology Pamela Abbott, Melissa Tyler, Claire Wallace, 2006-02 This third edition of this best selling book confirms the ongoing centrality of feminist perspectives and research to the sociological enterprise and introduces students to the wide range of feminist contributions in key areas of sociological concern Completely revised this edition includes new chapters on sexuality and the media additional material on race and ethnicity disability and the body many new international and comparative examples the influence of theories of globalization and post colonial studies In addition the theoretical elements have also been fully rethought in light of recent developments in social theory Written by three experienced teachers and examiners this book gives students of sociology and women's studies an accessible overview of the feminist contribution to all the key areas of sociological concern Understanding Feminism Peta Bowden, Jane Mummary, 2014-12-05 Understanding Feminism provides an accessible guide to one of the most important and contested movements in progressive modern thought Presenting feminism as a dynamic multi faceted and adaptive movement that has evolved in response to the changing practical and theoretical problems faced by women the authors take a problem oriented approach that maps the complex strands of feminist thinking in relation to women's struggles for equal recognition and rights and freedom from oppressive constraints of sex self expression and autonomy Each chapter focuses on a different cluster of concerns demonstrating key moves in second wave feminist thought as well as some of the diversity in response strategies that encompass both socio economic and cultural symbolic concerns This approach not only shows how central feminist insights theories and strategies emerge and re emerge across different contexts but makes clear that far from being over feminism remains a vital response to the diverse issues that women and men find pressing and socially important

Pregnancy in a High-tech Age Robin Gregg,1995-04 Too often in the debate over reproductive rights and technologies we lose sight of the fundamental emotional and psychological issues that define the experience of pregnancy Robin Gregg here draws on the words and stories of over thirty women to provide a first hand perspective on pregnancy in the modern age In an age where a new advance in reproductive technology occurs seemingly every month pregnancy has come to be defined by such medical procedures as prenatal screening amniocentesis fetal monitoring induced labor and cesarean sections Public policymakers ethicists religious figures and the medical establishment control the debate drowning out the voices of women who grapple in the most immediate sense with the issues Even feminist theorists often overlook the nuances and paradoxes of the reproductive revolution as experienced by individual particular women The reader follows these thirty women as they speak about whether to become pregnant and by what means how to choose a health provider what meaning they attribute to their pregnancies and how they navigate their way through the contradictory pressures they face during pregnancy The intimate nature of Gregg s research consisting as it does largely of women s pregnancy narratives lends her book a vibrancy often lacking in academic writing about reproduction

Fatal Abstractions

Patricia J. Thompson, 2004 She suggests that the domestic civic aspects of everyday life be recognized as co responsible options and offers a case study of the demise of a hestian home economics department in the hermean environment of higher education to illustrate her points

Identity and Justice Debbie Rodan, 2004 Debbie Rodan adds breadth and depth to the field of literary cultural and gender studies through a meticulous investigation of notions such as re presentation justice and legitimation She examines their historical and philosophical trajectories as well as their politico juridical underpinnings through an ambitious and timely recuperation of the Enlightenment projects of rationality and emancipation The point of departure is a critical engagement with the theoretical work of John Rawls Jurgen Habermas and Jean Franois Lyotard Rodan claims each can be read as foregrounding diverse ways of constituting identity within the social world Recognition of other people s identity at the social cultural and national level is crucial to the possibility of justice Rodan tests the concepts of justice legitimation and identity through detailed critical readings analyses of a range of texts The range includes the film East is East a number of auto biographical narratives as well as the Australian government report Bringing Them Home which is concerned with the removal of Aboriginal children from their families She avoids polarising Aboriginal non Aboriginal notions of justice identity etc by including texts which raise and problematise questions of ethnicity and gender

Women's Empowerment and Islam Zinat Kausar, 2015 Economics & Feminism Randy Pearl Albelda, 1997 Albelda s study is the first to critically examine the marginal impact of feminism on economics She explores the history of feminism and economics with surprising results namely that women were better represented in the profession in the 1920s than they were in the early 1970s

Simone de Beauvoir Studies Jacques J. Zéphir, Yolanda Astarita Patterson, 1999

Revisiting Organization Theory Regine Bendl, 2005 This book deals with organizational discourse and its gender subtexts The two main research questions guiding this book are first according to what notions and patterns are males and females re produced within organizational texts and more crucially according to what gender subtext is organizational discourse re framed Second how does this gender subtext discourse influence change and transform organizational discourse and contribute to the development of a new field or space for organizational research that transgresses mainstream disciplinary borders In pursuing these questions deconstruct vely this book stresses on the processes and patterns according to which organizational discourse and thus of course organizational scholars re produce gender
