Youth Mediations and Affective Relations Susan Driver, Natalie Coulter, 2018-10-01 Youth Mediations and Affective Relations explores dynamic and expansive possibilities of young people's affective lives as they engage with diverse social media in prolific and specific ways. It addresses the situated embodied and emotional experiences of young people as they actively use media in order to forge communities, play imaginatively, protest injustice, experiment with their identities, make media or explore friendships. Furthermore, it explores the relational and contextual dimensions of their everyday interactions. Against static knowledge and moral panics that abstract youth from the complex and changing worlds in which they grapple with digital media, this book hones in on the layered textures of youth experiences to consider how today's youth think and feel in subtle and unexpected ways.

International Youth Day My City Links, 2025-08-04 Blazing a trail The young are shaping change in Odisha one firm step at a time. A young population more often than not is the driving force when it comes to a society's progress to the next level of development. They are the ones leading innovation and exploring new avenues for success and growth. As the world marks International Youth Day, our Cover Story takes stock of how the young are redefining Odisha in their own small ways. The ubiquitous watermelon continues to come to the rescue as the summers become increasingly hot and unbearable. Unpredictable weather, however, poses a serious challenge. City Green brings you more on this. The latest episode of My City Talks weaves together some inspiring dreams and experiences as two young women talk about their journey and the motivation that propels them ahead. Read all about them in City Lights. Meanwhile, City Literature zeroes in on a unique initiative that has books at its core. The first edition of the Bocca Book Club meet attracts a group of bookaholics. Boccaholics if you may for an interactive session that brought some interesting insights and perspectives to the fore. Art workshops that are designed to connect and comfort. This is what artist Tulika Karmakar brings to the table each time she organises her carefully curated art sessions in Cuttack. Our CityZen for this edition, Tulika opens up about the challenges she faced in getting the concept off the drawing board and the response she is now receiving from the participants. Lights camera action. These three words have long defined the intricate art of filmmaking. City Tech takes you behind the scenes and delves into the fascinating evolution of the camera that is an integral part of visual storytelling. Elsewhere in the edition, ScreenShots brings you insights from a free-wheeling discussion between five practitioners of different skills related to cinema. Cityflix reviews the Radhika Apte starrer Sister Midnight. The taste of devotion is something that anyone who has visited the Lord Jagannath temple in Puri would be familiar with. A special feature in our Food section brings you the recipes of five offerings that make up Sukuli Bhogha. City Sports takes a look at young hockey players who are making Odisha proud at the national level. Our other regulars include City Health which focuses on Yoga and mental health as well as Fashion Lifestyle which pays tribute to Odisha's textile heritage. City Tales carries on with its exploration of sacred tanks in the temple city of Bhubaneswar.
