Agbobli, Henri-Vincent Ndjave-Ndjoy, Regis Muchemwa, Andre de la Harpe, Konosoang Mpiti, Ayodeji Afolayan, 2016-12-31 Cape Town South Africa 7 Sept 2016 8 Sept 2016 Theme Sustainable economies in the information economy Purpose To share the quality academic papers presented at the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics ICBMD held from 7 to 8 September 2016 at African Pride Crystal Hotel and Spa in Cape Town As grey literature the proceedings are the contributions made by researchers at the conference and are considered the written record of the work that was presented to fellow conference delegates Methodology The methodology used varies from researcher to researcher but are suitable for the studies conducted Thus on the one hand studies that were subjective in nature used the interpretive paradigm where the qualitative approach adopted made use of the interview method to collect data On the other hand studies that were objectively inclined adopted the positivist philosophy and used survey questionnaires to collect data However there were some academic papers which used mixed methodology because of the nature of the study Whatever methodology used adhered to the ethos of the philosophies underpinning the methodology Contribution made to scholarship The articles come from individual researchers and each article in the proceedings is unique Mostly there is no general argument leading from one contribution to the next However it is interesting to note that in the area of economic performance it was evident that real exchange rate and net foreign direct investment contribute more towards innovations in economic growth With regard to human capital development papers presented evidence that there exists a definite need to explore the phenomenon of personal branding as limited scientific academic research has been done within the field of personal branding or on elements of the topic Thus the outcome argues that personal branding has an influence on leadership style which in turn impacts on organisational performance and related hygiene factors Furthermore it was demonstrated that current methods or strategies for enforcing institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation have not been successful and as such new strategies are needed to reinforce efforts to nurture and invigorate the institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation With regard to technology and big data impact on organisational performance it was evident that system performance memory consumption and CPU utilisation can be used as criteria to compare and evaluate big data technologies to improve organisational performance Most of the articles contribution reemphasised technology education and training as a means of digitising business and improving effectiveness Target audience The target readership is academic researchers and business leaders who require access to the latest developments in the fields of economics information management business education development studies social sciences and technology It is also for policymakers and other stakeholders who need a better understanding of the impact of new developments on existing policies and regulations for their review or amendment Project Management Clifford F. Gray, Erik W. Larson, 2008 As the market leading textbook on the subject Project Management The Managerial Process 4e is distinguished by its balanced treatment of both the technical and behavioral issues in project management as well as by its

coverage of a broad range of industries to which project management principles can be applied It focuses on how project management is integral to the organization as a whole The 4th edition reflects the latest changes found in the practice Other texts discuss the topics covered in this text but they do not view oversight as the project manager's operating environment as does Gray Larson Project Management Harvey Maylor, 2005 Combining a strong academic approach with relevant practical cases this text skilfully shows the range of issues that face project managers throughout the project cycle Harvey Maylor considers projects as being a core business activity and approaches the subject from a strategic perspective covering both the role of projects in the execution of organisational strategy and the application of strategic principles in projects Classic features Covers a wide range of project settings from traditional large scale industrial projects through to small scale personal projects in both service and manufacturing settings Each chapter contains examples of Project Management in Practice as well as case studies discussion questions and exercises to help you check your understanding This new Media Edition comes with a free CD Rom containing a 60 day evaluation version of Microsoft Office Project Professional 2003 to help familiarise you with the most commonly used project management software Project Management is used extensively to accompany courses on undergraduate masters and MBA programmes as well as for in company training and for professionals wanting to bring themselves up to date with developments in the field Extra teaching materials are available online for lecturers at <http://www.booksites.net/maylor> Dr Harvey Maylor is Lecturer in Operations and Project Management at the University of Bath School of Management He is also a consultant and trainer in the area of Project Management and has received funding for his research from industry government the European Commission and most recently the Project Management Institute For all involved in projects it's a book that needs to be on your bookshelf but better in your hand Bob Saunders Open University and Association for Project Management A thorough introduction to project management Highly recommended for use as an introductory course text Paul Walley Lecturer in Operations Management Warwick Business School A useful introduction to the subject for students as it indicates the complexity of the subject and its importance in a wide range of industries Prof J H Rogerson Dean of Engineering Science and Manufacturing Cranfield University
