Media is a big part of our lives We see and hear it everywhere In this book Miller demonstrates how media has taken the place of ritual s Our everyday lives are constantly facilitated by media rituals This media ritual process exists regardless of its content and is a phenomenon that overcomes our subjective experience with a constant flux of representations and seduction Memory and mind are in a perpetual process of re imaging distortion and violence Human relationships can be comprised of sheer information sharing from any distance around the globe The objective world around us is experienced and interpreted through the virtual worlds we are forced to participate in The dialectic is barred and the flood of media images captures us in the univocal Persons then understand that truth comes from their singular isolated and violated self Therefore the body in the real world feels foreign and we feel dissociated and anxious reaching in a vain attempt for more media to fill and restore our bodily and spiritual needs Our personhood and everything that we are lie under the influence of this media ritual process
