The Dynamics of Architectural Form. Based on the 1975 Mary Duke Biddle Lectures at the Cooper Union. [Illustr.] Rudolf Arnheim, 1977 Dynamics of architectural form R. Arnheim, The Dynamics of Architectural Form. Based on the 1975 Mary Duke Biddle Lectures at the Cooper Union. [Illustr.] Rudolf Arnheim, 1977 Philosophy and Architecture Michael H. Mitias, 1994 The Making of Things Frank Jacobus, Angela Carpenter, Rachel Smith Loerts, Justin M. Tucker, Randal Dickinson, 2021-07-29 The Making of Things is about effect and intention in the schematic architectural model a deep dive into the nature of architectonic form as the underlying syntax for all architectural work By focusing on primitive geometries alongside fundamental principles of architectural thinking and making this book enhances the reader's capacity to intellectually and physically craft models that effectively communicate intention With over 650 diagrams this book acts as an expansive visual glossary that reveals the underlying structure of architectonics and acts as an encyclopedia of formal possibilities Supporting essays in the book explore the nature of perception abstraction and metaphor to provide a theoretical basis of formal effects in architecture This structure enables readers to make clear and direct connections between the things you construct and the reasons you construct them This book is a bridge from the what to the why of form making It is a pedagogical notebook a design primer that prompts discourse about the nature of objects This is a must have desk reference for beginning architecture and interior design students to stimulate their creative approaches and gain foundational knowledge of the underlying effects of formal typologies and how they manifest themselves in built forms around the world Frank Lloyd Wright and the Path to Beauty Kenneth Dahlin, 2025-06-19 This book connects Frank Lloyd Wright's organic theory with his pursuit of beauty presenting a path for the recovery of beauty in architecture While there has been a resurgence of interest in beauty in architecture recently the modern uglification of our built environment means there is no clear pathway to define or find it In this study Wright's organic theory provides such a path to reclaim this beauty Tracing the evolution of Wright's concept of organic architecture author Kenneth Dahlin explores Wright's middle way a route mediating between traditional historical precedents and today's novelty driven architectural culture often detached from deeper notions of harmony and beauty Chapters explore Wright's romanticist roots in the late 19th and early 20th centuries including the House Beautiful movement the centrality of Japanese aesthetics and his concept of the integrated whole Two chapters on Aristotle and Hegel ground Wright's pursuit of beauty in philosophical aesthetics setting the stage for a concluding synthesis that unites the various strands of Wright's theory into a model theory of organic architecture for the future This book will be of interest to Frank Lloyd Wright scholars and enthusiasts as well as postgraduate and advanced undergraduate architecture students Rethinking the Forms of Visual Expression Robert Sowers,1990 Robert Sowers begins this book by questioning our conception of the visual arts painting sculpture and architecture as autonomous archetypal entities that can be defined independent of one another in terms of their materials and techniques He cuts through the limits of categorization we have come to accept to lay the groundwork for a coherent theory of the relation between the visual arts He proposes that we treat the pictorial the sculptural and the architectural not as palpable physical things but as activities the basic forms of visual expression employed to create such distinct artifacts as paintings statues and buildings By defining the expressive function of each art Sowers helps us to understand what we mean when we speak of the sculptural qualities of architecture or the pictorial qualities of sculpture The world of visual art then is a structured whole a world in which the arts can meet merge with and mutually reinforce or swear at one another often in unexpected yet compelling ways The Journal of Aesthetic Education ,1993 Includes special issues Sources of Architectural Form Mark Gelernter,1995-06-15 Provides a critical history of Western architecture theory from the ancient world to the present day It looks at how the architect generates architectural form in order to explain a number of issues including the origins of style the persistence of tradition and the role of genius A Perceptual Analysis of Movement in the Street Tara Dabney Creshaw,1983 The Novel Franco Moretti,2006 The Minimum Dwelling Karel Teige,2002 Teige envisioned the minimum dwelling not as a reduced version of a bourgeois apartment or rural cottage but as a wholly new dwelling type built with the cooperation of architects sociologists economists health officials physicians social workers politicians and trade unionists Architecture of the Information Society René Kural,2000 NCGA '89 Conference Proceedings: Architecture, engineering and construction; CADD National Computer Graphics Association (U.S.). Conference and Exposition,1989 Modernity, Nation and Urban-Architectural Form Shireen Jahn Kassim,Norwina Mohd Nawawi,Mansor Ibrahim,2018-07-20 This book explores how Malaysia as a multicultural modern nation has approached issues of nationalism and regionalism in terms of physical expression of the built environment Ever since the nation s post Colonial era architects and policy makers have grappled with the theoretical and practical outcomes of creating public architecture that effectively responds to traditions nationhood and modernity The authors compile and analyse prevailing ideas and strategies present case studies in architectural language and form and introduce the reader to tensions arising between a nationalist agenda and local regionalist architectural language These dichotomies represent the very nature of multicultural societies and issues with identity a challenge that various nations across the globe face in a changing environment This topical and pertinent volume will appeal to students and scholars of urban planning architecture and the modern city The University of Tennessee Journal of Architecture ,1988 Statement of Interior, Italian Apartments, 1947-1993 Manolo De Giorgi,Marco Romanelli,1994
