The Disappearing L Erasure Of Lesbian Spaces And Culture:

DISAPPEARING L Bonnie J. Morris, 2017-01-02 LGBT Americans now enjoy the right to marry but what will we remember about the vibrant cultural spaces that lesbian activists created in the 1970s 80s and 90s Most are vanishing from the calendar and from recent memory The Disappearing L explores the rise and fall of the hugely popular women only concerts festivals bookstores and support spaces built by and for lesbians in the era of woman identified activism Through the stories unfolding in these chapters anyone unfamiliar with the Michigan festival Olivia Records or the women s bookstores once dotting the urban landscape will gain a better understanding of the era in which artists and activists first dared to celebrate lesbian lives This book offers the backstory to the culture we are losing to mainstreaming and assimilation Through interviews with older activists it also responds to recent attacks on lesbian feminists who are being made to feel that they ve hit their cultural expiration date

The Disappearing L Bonnie J. Morris, 2016-07-29 Investigates the rise and fall of US American lesbian cultural institutions since the 1970s LGBT Americans now enjoy the right to marry but what will we remember about the vibrant cultural spaces that lesbian activists created in the 1970s 80s and 90s Most are vanishing from the calendar and from recent memory The Disappearing L explores the rise and fall of the hugely popular women only concerts festivals bookstores and support spaces built by and for lesbians in the era of woman identified activism Through the stories unfolding in these chapters anyone unfamiliar with the Michigan festival Olivia Records or the women s bookstores once dotting the urban landscape will gain a better understanding of the era in which artists and activists first dared to celebrate lesbian lives This book offers the backstory to the culture we are losing to mainstreaming and assimilation Through interviews with older activists it also responds to recent attacks on lesbian feminists who are being made to feel that they ve hit their cultural expiration date The Disappearing L is both an insider story and a well written analysis of a neglected piece of cultural history Morris delivers convincing arguments about why the lesbian feminist era was important not only to the individuals who lived it but also to a broader understanding of what has come to be called LGBT history No one could be better positioned to write this book than Morris Lillian Faderman author of The Gay Revolution The Story of the Struggle

The Lesbian Revolution Sheila Jeffreys, 2018-09-03 The Lesbian Revolution argues that lesbian feminists were a vital force in the Women s Liberation Movement WLM They did not just play a fundamental role in the important changes wrought by second wave feminism but created a powerful revolution in lesbian theory culture and practice Yet this lesbian revolution is undocumented The book shows that lesbian feminists were founders of feminist institutions such as resources for women survivors of men s violence including refuges and rape crisis centres and that they were central to campaigns against this violence They created a feminist squatting movement theatre groups bands art and poetry and conducted campaigns for lesbian rights They also created a profound and challenging analysis of sexuality which has disappeared from the historical record They analysed heterosexuality as a political institution arguing that lesbianism was a political choice for feminists and indeed a form of resistance in itself Using interviews with prominent lesbian feminists from the time of the WLM and informed by the author s personal experience this book aims to challenge the way the work and ideas of lesbian feminists have been eclipsed and to document the lesbian revolution The book will be of key interest to scholars and students of women s history the history of feminism the politics of sexuality women s studies gender studies lesbian and gay studies queer studies and cultural studies as well as to the lay reader interested in the WLM and feminism more generally

Is lesbian Identity Obsolete? Ella Ben Hagai,2023-05-29 This cross disciplinary book engages with the provocation Is lesbian identity obsolete In this volume researchers offer diverse perspectives on the question of lesbian identity past present and future This eclectic multidisciplinary compilation composed of chapters and shorter commentaries helps readers understand the roots of conflict and current tensions between the queer and the trans movements and the lesbian community Using a historical lens authors examine the 1970s lesbian communities practices of racial and trans inclusion and exclusion Several contributions from across the social sciences utilize qualitative and quantitative methods to illuminate the shifting meaning of lesbian identity today These contributions help explain why some cis and trans women and nonbinary folx come to either be attached to or disavow lesbian identification An additional set of chapters engage in theoretical analysis to explore the fraught relationship between queer theory and lesbian thought and the importance of lesbian theory in the formation of transgender scholarship This collection s eclectic engagement with the question of lesbian identity s obsolescence helps draw an ethical blueprint for a more sustainable inclusive and coalitional future for lesbian communities and identities This book will be of great value to students researchers and scholars in the fields of Sociology Psychology and Anthropology including Gay and Lesbian studies as well as the intersectionality of gender and sexuality The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Lesbian Studies

Who Needs Gay Bars? Greggor Mattson,2023-05-30 Gay bars have been closing by the hundreds The story goes that increasing mainstream acceptance of LGBTQ people plus dating apps like Grindr and Tinder have rendered these spaces obsolete Beyond that rampant gentrification in big cities has pushed gay bars out of the neighborhoods they helped make hip Who Needs Gay Bars considers these narratives accepting that the answer for some might be maybe nobody And yet Jarred by the closing of his favorite local watering hole in Cleveland Ohio Greggor Mattson embarks on a journey across the country to paint a much more complex picture of the cultural significance of these spaces inside big four gay cities but also beyond them No longer the only places for their patrons to socialize openly Mattson finds in them instead a continuously evolving symbol a physical place for feeling and challenging the beating pulse of sexual progress From the historical archives of Seattle s Garden of Allah to the outpost bars in Texas Missouri or Florida that serve as community hubs for queer youth these are places of celebration where the next drag superstar from Alaska or Oklahoma may be discovered They are also fraught grounds for confronting the racial and gender politics within and without the LGBTQ community The question that frames this story is not asking whether these spaces are needed but for whom earnestly

Stone, Jaime Cantrell, 2015-11-20 Finalist for the 2016 Lambda Literary Award in LGBT Anthology presented by the Lambda Literary Foundation Out of the Closet Into the Archives takes readers inside the experience of how it feels to do queer archival research and queer research in the archive The archive much like the closet exposes various levels of public and privateness recognition awareness refusal impulse disclosure framing silence cultural intelligibility each mediated and determined through subjective insider outsider ways of knowing The contributors draw on their experiences conducting research in disciplines such as sociology African American studies English communications performance studies anthropology and women s and gender studies These essays challenge scholars to engage with their affective experience of being in the archive illuminating how the space of the archive requires a different kind of deeply personal embodied research Out of the Closet Into the Archives represents the exciting directions for scholarship enabled by this rapid growth of new LGBTQ archives Although mindful of critiques of the archive as an institution of power and attentive to experiences and ephemerality that can escape it the essays published here practice forms of the archival turn that put relentless curiosity and unapologetic passion to use as methods for intellectual invention from the Foreword by Ann Cvetkovich

Inventing Lesbian Cultures Ellen Lewin, 1996-12-31 This pioneering collection of essays explores some of the many and varied ways that women might use a particular idea of being lesbian to invent themselves to understand how they are connected in the world and to imagine notions of community Focused through an anthropological lens contributors explore a wide range of expressions that bind different lesbian communities together from dance club culture to lesbian wedding ceremonies from lesbian life in the 1920s to lesbian motherhood today As a whole Inventing Lesbian Cultures in America shows how communities and identities allow for a sense of collective meaning for lesbians today Defined in terms of culture the activities alliances and identities that make up the experience of being lesbian imbue their lives with dignity and stability Inventing Lesbian Cultures in America will become required reading for anyone interested in gender and sexual identity

An Archive of Feelings Ann Cvetkovich, 2003-03-14 In this bold new work of cultural criticism Ann Cvetkovich develops a queer approach to trauma She argues for the importance of recognizing and archiving accounts of trauma that belong as much to the ordinary and everyday as to the domain of catastrophe An Archive of Feelings contends that the field of trauma studies limited by too strict a division between the public and the private has overlooked the experiences of women and queers Rejecting the pathologizing understandings of trauma that permeate medical and clinical discourses on the subject Cvetkovich develops instead a sex positive approach missing even from most feminist work on trauma She challenges the field to engage more fully with sexual trauma and the wide range of feelings in its vicinity including those associated with butch femme sex and AIDS activism and caretaking An Archive of Feelings brings together oral histories from lesbian activists involved in ACT UP New York readings of literature by Dorothy Allison Leslie Feinberg Cherríe Moraga and Shani Mootoo videos by Jean Carlomusto and Pratibha Parmar and performances by Lisa Kron Carmelita Tropicana and the bands Le Tigre and Tribe 8 Cvetkovich reveals how activism performance and literature give rise to public cultures that work through trauma and transform the conditions producing it By looking closely at connections between sexuality trauma and the creation of lesbian public cultures Cvetkovich makes those experiences that have been pushed to the peripheries of trauma culture the defining principles of a new construction of sexual trauma one in which trauma catalyzes the creation of cultural archives and political communities How Places Make Us Japonica Brown-Saracino, 2018 Maybe we've had enough of studies of gay men and urban centers tracing out the similarities from one place to the next Japonica Brown Saracino bucks the trend giving us the first in depth study of lesbians and bisexual queer women more generally showing how four contrasting communal cultures have shaped their identity Individual lesbian residents shape the culture of sexual identity they embrace based at the same time on the prevailing culture in the city they inhabit And the consequence is that the same woman will develop a different version of lesbian identity depending on which of the four cities she moves into Those cities are Ithaca New York San Luis Obispo California Greenfield Massachusetts and Portland Maine She identifies them in the book a rare move for ethnographers thus insuring a coast to coast readership with lots of debate This book advances in almost equal measure sexuality and gender studies theories of identity theories of place and urban sociology Each city has its own loose bundles or connections between residents whether it's the taste based ties in Ithaca or the ties in San Luis Obispo that cut across demographics or the conversations about identity that prevail in Portland or the emphasis Greenfield on other dimensions of the self e.g. profession politics or life stage such as motherhood Along the way Brown Saracino poses a set of questions from urban sociology about migration residential choice and community change processes that students of cities rarely apply to sexual minority populations
