Small Business Sourcebook ,2004 Highly Effective Manager in a Minute Gajanan Shirke, The book includes empirical research and case studies embracing human capital relational capital and structural capital in context to Hospitality and service sectors From a learning and managerial perspective the book will identify effective managerial practices in hospitality and varied service sectors significant for sustaining business performance and competitive advantage Managerial Skills book covers Role Many Managers have been playing the Managerial role for a long time but are really not aware of what s the difference between their role that of a leader and that of a Supervisor The awareness that such sessions create make some of them realize that they land up executing when they should be managing the executioners Interpersonal Style We all behave in a specific manner based on our personality This behavior may help or impede our interpersonal relationships Our Managerial Skills Training sessions are a huge eye opener in this area and give the participants direction into what they need to work on It also makes them aware of the behavioral styles of others and how they may come across to the people around them Apart from this it also equips them with a tried and tested tool on handling conflict effectively Motivation Keeping your team motivated is prime for any Manager However Managers sometimes lose track of what they need to do to provide that motivation to different team members After all what motivates one may not motivate the other Time Management Ensuring that we get the most out of our day and also help our team members do the same is again very important Our Managerial Skills Training throws light on aspects of planning and prioritization that can help Managers improve productivity Goal Setting Imagine having a team where the members are headed in different directions That s really not going to help you fulfill your team or organizational goals Therefore defining these goals and defining them smartly for team members to follow is something that we teach during these sessions Leading in the Age of Innovations Lenka Theodoulides,Gabriela Kormancová,David Cole,2019-02-06 Leading in the Age of Innovations centres on the need for a more complex process relational oriented approach to leadership The complexity of leadership has grown significantly during the 21st century where the need to adapt to the escalating changes in our society and workplace forms one of the most important prerequisites to succeed. Leading in the Age of Innovations represents the outcomes of the lengthy scientific work that was undertaken for the past 10 years and it is still an ongoing process. This book introduces a new concept of leadership based on the process and relational dimensions which resulted in the development of the Reflective Leadership concept. The new model of leadership provides a unique concept on how to bring together various disciplines and explains the overlapping relations between them. Moreover, the proposed view on leadership reflects the current evolution around the globe, highlighting the importance of change and innovation. In organizations, too much focus is on the end product and the technical details of how a product is made and distributed. Less attention is focused on how people interact and how the human capacity is effectively supported by leaders who, on the other hand, are expected to support a culture of innovation. This behavioural interaction is governed by a set of predictable values and norms. These relationships need to be understood for an organization to prosper and is thus far more important to the leadership process. Leading in the Age of Innovations seeks to establish this understanding and will be key reading to researchers, scholars, and practitioners alike in the field of leadership, organizational studies, and related disciplines.
