Palimpsests Literature In The Second Degree Stages:

Palimpsests Gérard Genette, 1997-01-01 A palimpsest is a written document usually on vellum or parchment that has been written upon several times often with remnants of erased writing still visible Originally published in France in 1982 Gerard Genette's PALIMPSESTS examines the manifold relationships a text may have with prior texts on the same document

In the Second Degree Philip Alexander, Armin Lange, Renate Pillinger, 2010-10-16 To better understand the phenomenon of Literature in the Second Degree in Jewish and Biblical studies often characterized as parabiblical or Rewritten Bible the current volume applies the theories of Gerard Genette to ancient and medieval literature from various cultures Literature in the Second Degree realigns earlier authoritative texts to the dynamics of developing cultures and their changing cultural memories In the case of authoritative base texts Literature in the Second Degree reaffirms their authority by way of interpretative actualization In the case of non authoritative base texts it replaces them to effect cultural forgetting Far from being just literary forgery pseudepigraphy Literature in the Second Degree has an important function in the development of the ancient and medieval cultures

The Gothic Novel and the Stage Francesca Saggini, 2015-08-12 In this ground breaking study Saggini explores the relationship between the late eighteenth century novel and the theatre arguing that the implicit theatricality of the Gothic novel made it an obvious source from which dramatists could take ideas Similarly elements of the theatre provided inspiration to novelists

Music on Stage Volume 2 Luis Campos, Fiona Jane Schopf, 2020-11-11 Performance by its very nature embraces many constituents the theories of which have developed into discreet disciplines as on going research deepens our understanding and knowledge of each one of them Concomitantly there continues to grow a greater interlinking fusion and blurring of discreet boundaries between traditional genres features highlighted in the seventeen papers presented here Topics explored in this volume include the intermedial performance of the Irrepressibles and electronically controlled sounds on the concert platform the ways in which the physical body dictates movement and character and how the embodiment of the voice goes beyond character stereotypes how Romeo Castellucci legitimized the audience's gaze whilst staging brain damaged patients interculturalism in a new operatic work focusing on the current Israeli Palestinian crisis interrogating transgenerational depictions of Otherness in the Rocky Horror Show musical speech in Iannis Xenakis reworking of ancient Greek in his Oresteia genre conflation in terms of unaccompanied monodrama trans genre adaptation in Strauss's Der Rosenkavalier and Philip Glass's Cocteau trilogy and textual and musical comedy in Ligeti's Le Grand Macabre among others

Shakespeare, from Stage to Screen Sarah Hatchuel, 2004-08-12 How is a Shakespearean play transformed when it is directed for the screen In this 2004 book Sarah Hatchuel uses literary criticism narratology performance history psychoanalysis and semiotics to analyse how the plays are fundamentally altered in their screen versions She identifies distinct strategies chosen by film directors to appropriate the plays Instead of providing just play by play or film by film analyses the book addresses the main issues of theatre film aesthetics making such theories and concepts accessible before applying them to practical cases Her book also offers guidelines for the study of sequences in Shakespearean adaptations and includes examples from all the major films from the 1899 King John through the adaptations by Olivier Welles and Branagh to Taymor s 2000 Titus and beyond This book is aimed at scholars teachers and students of Shakespeare and film studies providing a clear and logical apparatus with which to examine Shakespearean screen adaptations Medieval and Early Modern England on the Contemporary Stage Marianne Dugeon, 2021-09-20 This volume explores the multiple connections between contemporary British theatre and the medieval and early modern periods Involving both French and British scholars as well as playwrights adapters and stage directors its scope is political as it assesses the power of adaptations and history plays to offer a new perspective not only on the past and present but also on the future Along the way burning contemporary social and political issues are explored such as the place and role of women and ethnic minorities in today s post Brexit Britain The volume builds into a dialogue between the ghosts of the past and their contemporary spectators Starting with a focus on contemporary adaptations of Shakespeare s plays then concentrating on contemporary history plays set in the distant past and ending with the contributions of famous playwrights sharing their experience the book will be of interest to practitioners as well as students and researchers in drama and performance studies Lund Studies in English , 1933

Twentieth-century European Cultural Theorists Paul Hansom, 2001 Presents biographies of the men and women who wrestled with the complex theoretical problems of twentieth century culture Many of the theorists treated in this volume are concerned with the effects of mass culture technology and consumerism Female Quest in Christina Stead's For Love Alone Mathilda Adie, 2004 Christina Stead s works resist simplistic categorization a circumstance which has attracted some critics and exasperated many others The upsurge of post colonial and feminist criticism in the 1980s revitalized critical interest in her books Exuberant intertextuality and an abundance of contradictory literary and ideological discourses previously often regarded as excesses flawing Stead s literary style now became appreciated qualities The aim of this book is to illuminate a host of revealing but frequently overlooked details that form patterns essential for a deeper understanding and enjoyment of Stead s novels Intertextuality and the workings of conflicting discourses play prominent parts in the critical analyses of quests undertaken by Stead s female characters particularly that of Teresa Hawkins whose quest provides For Love Alone with its romance structure A combination of Northrop Frye s myth criticism with feminist and post colonial criticism opens the way for an in depth analysis of Teresa as a modern quest hero informed by literature but at odds with its conventional gender roles The intertextual perspective sheds light on her progress as well as on important parts of the literary context in which For Love Alone is embedded The concluding survey of Stead s other novels traces the development of Stead's treatment of female quest within the entire body of her fiction

Writing a National Colony Regine I. Heberlein, 2008 No rigorous critical analysis has been undertaken on the emergence of the German settlements in Chile The historiography of the German settlements in Southern Chile has converged on a father figure and a founding moment on August 18 1842 Bernhard Eunom Philippi 1811-1852 submitted to Ramón Luis Irarrázabal minister of the interior of the Republic of Chile through the intendant of Valdivia Colonel José Ignacio García a first plan for settling the interior of the province of Valdivia with German immigrants The settlement came to pass in 1852 and eventually prospered having survived an initial period of starvation and administrative difficulties To this day the area's German heritage is preserved in its cultural institutions and significant bilingualism In this book the author has adopted a New Historicist stance in selecting the primary materials for this study The approach has resulted in the inclusion of an eclectic array of genres disciplines and formats among them private and public texts published and unpublished materials scientific and nonscientific jargons representative and nonrepresentative documents and fiction and nonfiction Among the documents the book discusses are emigration pamphlets letters journals travelogues maps monographs field notes reports presentations and biological classifications In labeling textual categories customary disciplinary boundaries strive to delimit contain and explain the scope and meaning of the discourses deployed in each Having chosen to consider a host of colonial inscriptions with regard to their fields of operation the author has found those determining limits to be obstructionist rather than productive Rather the author concentrates on the imaginary construction of textual boundaries and their permeabilities the constitutive relationships between the narrative and the dramatic for example the fictive and the scientific and the descriptive and the graphic This approach has allowed the author to recover the marginal to reflect on contextualization and to foreground the incoherent and fragmentary and in doing so to blur the line between symbolic and material action writing and colonization and the copy and the original What remains then is the practice of texts on minds and bodies This is an important book for collections in anthropology history as well as ethnic and immigrant studies

Literary History Anders Pettersson, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2006 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one's own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic

Lethal Performances Otilie P. Klein, 2017 This book provides an in depth analysis of representations of female murderers in modern American drama Paying close attention to the plays plot form and style the study seeks to come to terms with the dramatic and cultural function of this phenomenon Given the rarity of female murder in real life the popularity and prevalence of this theme in culture is striking and unsettling at the same time After all a woman who kills not only violates against basic social rules but also upsets gender norms This potential to break with an ideology that rests on hierarchically structured gender binaries equips the figure of the female murderer with the power to symbolically kill established views about gender and sexuality It is this ideologically disruptive potential that makes the female murderer a fascinating object of study as her cultural figuration may provide information about the meaning assigned to women at a certain historical moment
