Understanding Relations Between Scripts Philippa Steele, 2017-08-31 Understanding Relations Between Scripts examines the writing systems of the ancient Aegean and Cyprus in the second and first millennia BC principally Cretan Hieroglyphic Linear A Linear B Cypriot Minoan and the Cypriot Syllabary These scripts of which some are deciphered and others are not are known to be related to each other However the details of their relationships with each other have remained poorly understood and this will be the first volume dedicated solely to this issue Nine papers aim to reach a better appreciation of relationships between writing systems than has been possible in previous research through an interdisciplinary dialogue that takes account of both features of the writing systems and the contextual factors affecting the way in which writing was passed on Each individual contribution furthers this aim by presenting the latest research on the Aegean scripts demonstrating the great advances in our understanding of script relations that are possible through such detailed and innovative studies
