Patriarchy And Domestic Violence Challenging Common:

Facing Patriarchy Professor Bob Pease, 2019-10-15 Facing Patriarchy challenges current thinking about men's violence against women. Drawing upon radical and intersectional feminist theory and critical masculinity studies, the book locates men's violence within the structures and processes of patriarchy. Addressing the limitations of current violence prevention policies, Bob Pease argues that a nuanced conceptualisation of patriarchy that accounts for a variety of patriarchal structures, intersections with other forms of inequality, patriarchal ideologies, men's peer group relations, men's sexist practices, and the construction of patriarchal subjectivities is required to understand the links between gender and men's violence against women. Pease shows that men's violence against women needs to be understood in the context of other forms of men's violence, including violence against boys and other men, in the involvement of men in wars and conflicts between nations, and men's ecologically destructive practices which constitute a form of slow violence. With crucial implications for priorities in violence prevention, gender equality promotion, and in strategies for engaging men, this work Facing Patriarchy offers new hope for the elimination of men's violence. This is an essential book for scholars, practitioners, activists, and policy makers involved in violence prevention in national and international contexts. Dishonoured and Unheard: Christian Women and Domestic Violence Daphne Marsden, 2018 It is not easy for Christian women experiencing domestic abuse to find well-informed and safe spiritual care. However, in this book, these women, along with pastors, counsellors, theology students, and friends, will find guidance grounded in scripture. Forgiveness, marriage as a covenant, headship, and submission are explored. Drawing from women's stories, researchers, and biblical scholars, this book offers a compassionate response to Christian women living with and recovering from domestic violence. Marriage at the Crossroads Aída Besançon Spencer, William David Spencer, Steven Tracy, Celestia Tracy, 2010-02-04 Have you ever wondered how egalitarian and complementarian marriages play out differently on a day-to-day level? In this unique book, Aída and William Spencer and Steve and Celestia Tracy, two couples from the differing perspectives of egalitarianism and soft complementarianism, share a constructive dialogue about marriage in practice. They cover a variety of topics like marriage, discipleship, headship, and submission, roles, and decision making, and intimacy in marriage. Also included are responses from three additional cultural frameworks: North American, Hispanic, Korean American, and African American. Whether you're still working out your views on marriage or have found an approach you're comfortable with, this book will help you better understand the two perspectives on the ground level. While the theological starting points are different, you may be surprised to see the degree of convergence on practical issues as the dialogue unfolds. Living On The Edge Jonathan Burke, 2014-01-26 This book addresses common doubts and concerns Christians have concerning God and the Bible, including claims from the New Atheism, disputes over Bible archaeology, questions about the historical accuracy of the Bible, questions about the original texts of the Old and New Testament, questions about what the Bible really teaches concerning topics such as baptism, heaven, and hell, Satan, and
