Betrayal Harold Pinter Script:

Betrayal Harold Pinter, 2014-01-07 One of the most essential artists produced by the twentieth century Pinter's work gets under our skin more than that of any living playwright New York Times Upon its premiere at the National Theatre Betrayal was immediately recognized as a masterpiece It won the Olivier Award for best new play and has since been performed all around the world and made into an Academy Award nominated film starring Jeremy Irons Ben Kingsley and Patricia Hodge Betrayal begins with a meeting between adulterous lovers Emma and Jerry two years after their affair has ended During the nine scenes of the play we move back in time through the stages of their affair ending in the house of Emma and her husband Robert Jerry's best friend Betrayal deals with the shifting balance of power in triangular relationships and with the pain of loss Pinter probes the corrosive nature of betrayal a world where pain and loss are explored with poetic precision Guardian Betrayal is an exquisite play brilliantly simple in form and courageous in its search for a poetry that turns banality into a melancholy beauty Newsweek There is hardly a line into which desire pain alarm sorrow rage or some kind of blend of feelings has not been compressed like volatile gas in a cylinder less stable than it looks The play's subject is not sex not even adultery but the politics of betrayal and the damage it inflicts on all involved Times UK

Sharp Cut Steven H. Gale, 2002 From 1802 when the young artist William Edward West began painting portraits on a downriver trip to New Orleans to 1918 when John Alberts the last of Frank Duveneck's students worked in Louisville a wide variety of portrait artists were active in Kentucky and the Ohio River Valley Lessons in Likeness Portrait Painters in Kentucky and the Ohio River Valley 1802 1920 charts the course of those artists as they painted the mighty and the lowly statesmen and business magnates as well as country folk living far from urban centers Paintings by each artist are illustrated when possible from The Filson Historical Society collection of some 400 portraits representing one of the most extensive holdings available for study in the region This volume begins with a cultural chronology a backdrop of critical events that shaped the taste and times of both artist and sitter The chronology is followed by brief biographies of the artists both legends and recent discoveries illustrated by their work Matthew Harris Jouett who studied with Gilbert Stuart William Edward West who painted Lord Byron and Frank Duveneck are well known far less so are James T. Poindexter who painted charming children's portraits in western Kentucky Reason Croft a recently discovered itinerant in the Louisville area and Oliver Frazer the last resident portrait artist in Lexington during the romantic era Pennington's study offers a captivating history of portraiture not only as a cherished possession but also representing a period of cultural and artistic transitions in the history of the Ohio River Valley region Harold Pinter: Plays 4 Harold Pinter, 2013-10-17 This revised third volume of Harold Pinter's work includes The Homecoming Old Times No Man's Land four shorter plays six revue sketches and a short story It also contains the speech given by Pinter in 1970 on being awarded the German Shakespeare Prize The Homecoming Of all Harold Pinter's major plays The Homecoming has the most powerful narrative line You are fascinated lured on sucked into the vortex Sunday

Telegraph The most intense expression of compressed violence to be found anywhere in Pinter's plays The Times Old Times A rare quality of high tension is evident revealing in Old Times a beautifully controlled and expressive formality that has seldom been achieved since the plays of Racine Financial Times Harold Pinter's poetic Proustian Old Times has the inscrutability of a mysterious picture and the tension of a good thriller Independent No Man's Land The work of our best living playwright in its command of the language and its power to erect a coherent structure in a twilight zone of confusion and dismay The Times

F. Dukore, 1982 Betrays Gabriella Turnaturi, 2007 From Iago to Fredo Judas to General Hospital acts of betrayal fascinate us Eventually we all encounter this universal experience of human interaction but despite its ubiquity being betrayed can turn our lives upside down and leave us feeling suddenly frail and alone Betrayal only arises out of sharing something of yourself with another and its impact speaks to the great tragedy of human relations at bottom other people are unknowable While most attempts to study betrayal only consider its moral or psychological dimensions Gabriella Turnaturi here examines betrayal as an act embedded in social relationships whose meanings change over time For example adultery is one of the most recognizable forms of betrayal but a wide gulf exists between its role in Madame Bovary and in The Ice Storm Therefore Turnaturi contends in order to examine the many meanings of betrayal we need to understand its context in a specific time and place Born from the unpredictable possibilities of human interaction betrayal emerges as a sociological event in this thought provoking meditation on the stab in the back Theater Criticisms Stanley Kauffmann, 1983 New
