Balanced Scorecard. The Challenge of Measurement in Human Resource Management Matthias Beer,2013-09-11 Seminar paper from the year 2011 in the subject Leadership and Human Resources Miscellaneous grade 2 0 University of applied sciences Munich course MBA language English abstract As people are the most important and valuable assets a company has the human resource management HRM has a strategic role to play However not always this importance of HRM is seen and human resources HR as an organization have in some companies a minor standing In order to measure the contribution of HRM to the corporate results a measurement system has to be established This measurement system the balanced scorecard BSC breaks down the corporate strategy to each level of a company and describes measures accordingly which finally makes the HRM role measureable This assignment provides some background information about the balanced scorecard approach in general and for human resource management in particular. The information covers the different perspectives of a BSC as well as some possible measures. Further on the performance measurement in HRM is described dealing with an explanation why it is not straight forward and where difficulties are. The chapter deals also with the benefits and how to measure them. As a summary the advantages and limitations in using a balanced scorecard in the HRM are given. The work is closing with the ITM checklist providing a holistic overview of using the BSC approach inside a company and in HRM.

Introduction to Accounting Penne Ainsworth, Dan S. Deines, 2007 This textbook integrates financial and managerial accounting as opposed to keeping these areas separate the approach followed by most books and curriculums. By integration we mean the authors focus on the business process and examine the activities from both an external financial reporting perspective and an internal management decision making perspective. The text incorporates real world applications including actual financial statements to reinforce the relevance of topics to real business situations and promote student interest. The text also promotes active learning through Enhance Your Understanding probing questions placed sporadically throughout many chapters. Of Interest boxes that provide additional information relating to the chapter concepts. New Fast Fact boxes that provide additional information related to chapter concepts in a short trivia like manner and end of chapter group exercises.
