Between Philosophy And Literature Bakhtin And The Question Of The Subject:

Between Philosophy and Literature Daphna Erdinast-Vulcan, 2013-12-11 This is an original reading of Mikhail Bakhtin in the context of Western philosophical traditions and counter traditions The book portrays Bakhtin as a Modernist thinker torn between an ideological secularity and a profound religious sensibility invariably concerned with questions of ethics and impelled to turn from philosophy to literature as another way of knowing Most major studies of Bakhtin highlight the fragmented and apparently discontinuous nature of his work Erdinast Vulcan emphasizes instead the underlying coherence of the Bakhtinian project reading its inherent ambivalences as an intersection of philosophical literary and psychological insights into the dynamics of embodied subjectivity Bakhtin's turn to literature and poetry as well as the dissatisfactions that motivated it align him with three other exilic Continental philosophers who were his contemporaries Bergson Merleau Ponty and Levinas Adopting Bakhtin's own open ended approach to the human sciences the book stages a series of philosophical encounters between these thinkers highlighting their respective itineraries and impasses and generating a Bakhtinian synergy of ideas Mikhail Bakhtin's Heritage in Literature, Arts, and Psychology Slav N. contribution to debates in political theory about the possibility of freedom in modern society Offering an alternative to poststructuralism and liberalism Arendt and Bakhtin show us how in a variety of complex ways subjects who are influenced by their culture especially by the language in which they speak and think can nonetheless help construct themselves and the world For both thinkers humans are meaning making beings who shape the world primarily through language even as it shapes us This book brings to light a rich vision of democracy that is sorely needed in a time when authoritarianism threatens us more than it has in decades Students and scholars in political science cultural studies and literature will all find this book indispensable

Dostoevskii: Stat'i i Materialy, 2014 Black Metafiction Madelyn Jablon, 1997 Black Metafiction examines the tradition of self consciousness in African American literature It points to the short comings of theories of metafiction founded on studies of Anglo American literature While some literary critics situate metafiction within the domain of postmodernism others regard it to be as old as storytelling itself Scholars of African American literature acknowledge it to be a distinguishing feature Critics such as Henry Louis Gates Jr and Houston A Baker Jr perceive it as fundamental to the aesthetics of the black vernacular Black Metafiction analyzes and evaluates these theories comparing work by scholars of comparative Anglo American and African American literature Jablon's study leads to her revision of established theories and provides a model for the evaluation and reformulation of other Eurocentric theories Jablon begins with a historical overview of theories of metafiction by scholars who specialize in African American literature and Anglo American literature She situates metafiction within African American literary history tracing it from slave narratives to a discussion of ten contemporary novels including Alice Walker's The Temple of My Familiar Leon Forrest's Divine Days Walter Mosley's Black Betty Charles Johnson's Middle Passage Rita Dove's Through the Ivory Gate Arthur Flowers' Another Good Loving Blues Ernest Gaines' A Lesson Before Dying Toni Morrison's Tar Baby Octavia Butler's Parable of the Sower and Charlotte Watson Sherman's One Dark Body Among the topics Jablon addresses are the Kunstlerroman and the blues hero the thematization of art voice metanarrative and the oral tradition and genres of metafiction

The Conradian, 2003 Mikhail Bakhtin Michael F. Bernard-Donals, 1995-02-24 The language theory of Mikhail Bakhtin does not fall neatly under any single rubric dialogism marxism prosaics authorship because the philosophic foundation of his writing rests ambivalently between phenomenology and Marxism The theoretical tension of these positions creates philosophical impasses in Bakhtin's work which have been neglected or ignored partly because these impasses are themselves mirrored by the problems of antifoundationalist and materialist tendencies in literary scholarship In Mikhail Bakhtin Between Phenomenology and Marxism Michael Bernard Donals examines various incarnations of phenomenological and materialist theory including the work of Jauss Fish Rorty Althusser and Pecheux and places them beside Bakhtin's work providing a contextualised study of Bakhtin a critique of the problems of contemporary critics and an original contribution to literary theory Russian Literature Triquarterly, 1988 Dialectics and Humanism, 1978 Literature and Society Bart Keunen, Bart Eeckhout, 2001 This volume offers a broad description of the development and perspectives of literary sociology within the discipline of comparative literature Several research options that marked the history of literary sociology are presented in this book The Rational Double Michael Damon Reid, 2009 Stanford Bulletin, 2003 Literature Criticism from 1400 to 1800, 2003 Slavic Review, 2003 American quarterly of Soviet and East European studies varies The State of Literary Theory Today, 1983 Radical Philosophy, 1972 Literature And Spirit David Patterson, 2021-03-17 If Bakhtin is right Wayne C Booth has said a very great deal of what we western critics have spent our time on is mistaken or trivial or both In Literature and Spirit David Patterson proceeds from the premise that Bakhtin is right Exploring Bakhtin's notions of spirit responsibility and dialogue Patterson takes his reader from the narrow arena of literary criticism to the larger realm of human living and human loving True to the spirit of Bakhtin he draws the Russian into a vibrant dialogue with other thinkers including Foucault Berdyaev Gide Lacan Levinas and Heidegger But he does not stop there He engages Bakhtin in his own insightful and unique dialogue meeting the responsibility and taking the risk summoned by dialogue Literature and Spirit therefore is not a typically cool and detached exercise in academic curiosity Instead it is a passionate and penetrating endeavor to respond to literature and spirit as the links in life's attachment to life The author demonstrates that in deciding something about literature we decide something about the substance and meaning of our lives Far from being a question of commentary or explication he argues our relation to literature is a matter of spiritual life and death The reader who comes before a literary text encounters the human voice And Patterson enables his reader to hear that voice in all its spiritual dimensions Unique in its questions and in its quest Literature and Spirit addresses an audience that goes beyond the ordinary academic categories It appeals not only to students of literature philosophy and religion but to anyone who seeks an understanding of spiritual presence and meaning in life Through his affirmation of what is dear Patterson responds to the needful question And in his response he puts the question to his audience Where are you Literature and Spirit thus speaks to those who face the task of answering Here I am
