The Preparation of a Model of Comprehension Questions Utilizing Barrett's Taxonomy for the Selection "Two Timers" Susan Scruggs,East Tennessee State University. Department of Curriculum and Instruction,1981

Beyond Training Jack C. Richards,1998-02-13 Beyond Training examines the nature of second language teacher development and how teachers practices are influenced by their beliefs and principles It seeks to move discussion of language teacher development beyond the level of training which reflects a technical view of specific teaching practices Instead it takes a more holistic approach to teacher development built on the notion of the teacher as critical and reflective thinker The argument pursued throughout is that teacher education needs to engage teachers not merely in the mastery of techniques but in an exploration of the knowledge beliefs and attitudes that underly their teaching practices

Psychology Library Editions: Psychology of Reading Various Authors,2021-03-01 The psychology of reading investigates the process by which readers extract visual information from written text and make sense of it Psychology Library Editions Psychology of Reading 11 Volumes brings together as one set or individual volumes a small series of previously out of print titles originally published between 1980 and 1995 The set includes topics such as dyslexia and the relationship between speech and reading The Language Experience Approach and the Science of Literacy Instruction Elaine Traynelis Yurek,Mary Winifred Strong,2024-05-14 The information contained in this text covers literacy instruction in kindergarten primary grades middle school and secondary school It gives the background on the developmental aspects of all attributes needed for successful reading It presents a balanced body of information for instruction between wholistic approaches and traditional approaches for the total literacy curriculum This book includes the complete developmental aspects of skills necessary for competence in all literacy tasks from birth to adolescent literacy the need for availability for teachers to assess the progress of all these skills as they are presented in a wholistic fashion on a regular basis the criteria of how decisions are made for remedial reading instruction the interface of special education considerations for students experiencing literacy deficits approaches for adolescent literacy programs and extensive information on teaching English language learners

The Psychology of Reading Mildred C. Robeck, Randall R. Wallace, 2017-11-06 The need to know why as well as how children and youth respond as they do to reading instruction has guided the selection of this book's content The second edition of this title originally published in 1990 has retained and elaborated upon the three major themes previously presented that reading is a linguistic process that motivation the affective domain may be as important in learning to read as the cognitive domain and that the reality of learning theory is to be found in the mechanisms of the brain where information is mediated and memory traces are stored The text integrates views from cognitive psychology psycholinguistics and neuropsychology as they relate to reading and writing A learning motivation model is provided to present associative learning conceptualization and self directed reading in a hierarchical relationship with distinct cognitive and affective components The distinction between beginning and proficient reading is maintained throughout the text
